AUBURN TO ITHACA.

Proposed Trolley Line Will Get Franchise in the University City.

Railroad franchises, and particularly that of the Auburn & Ithaca line, took up a large share of time at the meeting of the Ithaca Common Council Wednesday night. Originally the Auburn & Ithaca had no opposition, but when things began to take definite shape the existing trolley line in Ithaca put in a bid for a franchise in the streets asked for by the Auburn & Ithaca. Both these requests have been before the Ithaca Common Council for some time. The outlook is now, as a result of that night's meeting, that the franchise asked by the Auburn & Ithaca will be granted next month.

The application of the Ithaca Street Railway company for a franchise is in the hands of the Highway committee of the Council and was not taken out of committee Wednesday evening.

When the Council convened and the hearing on railroad matters was declared in order, Attorney William Heazlit Smith, for the Auburn & Ithaca, took the floor and said that delays at this time were prejudicial to his company, which was honest in its purpose and willing and anxious to begin work. Delays were made, he said, to cause the public to lose confidence and further long delay might cause inconvenience in financing the project, in which considerable money had already been invested.

Following Mr. Smith's remarks the Council went into executive session and spent a lot of time talking franchises. When the star chamber talk was finished it was announced that a special committee of four aldermen had been named to draw a franchise for the Auburn & Ithaca along lines proposed by the city attorney and differing somewhat from a proposed draft submitted in that the interests of the city would be better safeguarded, and report such a franchise back to the Council at its next regular meeting in the month of October, October 18.

It is said now that the franchise will probably be awarded at that time.

MME. SCHUMANN-HEINK ILL.

But It Isn't Serious and She Will Appear in Auburn Later.

A dispatch from Syracuse yesterday says: "Mme. Schumann-Heink arrived here this morning suffering from throat trouble. A specialist was consulted and the prima donna was hurried to New York for treatment. The local engagement to-night was cancelled. The Love's Lottery company remains here until word is received from the New York management regarding the filling of future engagements."

Later this dispatch was received from New York: "Mme. Schumann-Heinck's New York management said to-day that according to reports received here the singer's throat trouble was not of a serious nature and that a brief rest would enable her to continue her engagements by next Monday. Her dates at Binghamton and Wilkesbarre, scheduled for to-morrow and Saturday of this week, have not yet been cancelled, in the hope that she may recover even before Monday."

Mme. Schumann Heink, unquestionably the best of Manager Newton's bookings of last season in the musical line, is booked for the Auditorium this year and if anyone can pack the big playhouse she ought to be able to do it. The exact date of her appearance in Auburn has not been decided but it will be somewhat later in the season, notwithstanding the fact that she is booked as close to Auburn as Syracuse at present. It is evident that her indisposition is nothing serious and she will appear in Auburn later in the season. When here last season she was prevented from appearing at the Auditorium by a previous letting of that house for her date. She visited the big theatre, however, waxed enthusiastic over it and expressed a desire to sing in it. That desire resulted in booking her this season for the Auditorium.

The men are A. B. Slater, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and E. E. Eisenbach, of Binghamton.

Mayor Osborne and City Attorney Kerr left last night for New York to represent the city at the hearing on Saturday.

WAS ONCE IN AUBURN.

Shear, Noted Forger, Served a Two and Six "Bit" for Copper John.

A press dispatch on page 8 tells of the discharge from Clinton prison and rearrest of Leroy Shear, who is put down in criminal annals as one of the greatest of living forgers. Hundreds of columns have been written about Shear and his life but it is all concisely told in the dispatch on page 8. Several times announcements have been given out that Shear had decided to reform but they were almost invariably followed by news of his arrest for some new forgery. Shear was received at Auburn prison October 3, 1893, and served his sentence of two years and six months, which was imposed for forgery, second degree.

Died in Cortland.

The Cortlandt Standard of Tuesday says: "Georgia Seaman, the 7 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Seaman, of Auburn, died at the home of her aunt, Mr. C. F. Weiler, 11 Monroe Heights, at 7:40 this morning, after an illness of three weeks from tubercular meningitis. The little girl was spending a part of the Summer vacation at the home of her aunt when

No woman can look beautiful without good health. A woman's good health depends on those organs peculiarly feminine, and which so often become disordered, causing misery and dragging-down pain. Nature's laws are perfect, health endures if you obey them, but disease follows disobedience. The distressing complaints of women are often brought about by catching cold at a critical period, breathing foul indoors' air and long hours of work and nervous tension. Go straight to Nature for the cure—to the forest. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is Nature's cure for the distressing complaints of women. Prof. King, M. D., in his American Dispensatory, says of Black Cohosh or Black Snake-root—"our early American Indians set a high value on this root in diseases of women. It is surpassed by no other drug, in congestive conditions of the parts where there are dragging pains and tenderness."

Lady's Slipper root is a "nerve stimulant and tonic, improving both circulation and nutrition of the nerve centers—favoring sleep and cheerful condition of the mind; of service in mental depression, nervous headache, irregularities of women with despondency."—Prof. King. Besides the above ingredients there are—Golden Seal, Unicorn and Blue Cohosh roots in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Over 1000 pages and illustrated. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE TROLLEY TO AURELIUS.

Hearing Before Highway Commissioner Taylor, Who Will Decide Later.

A hearing was held in the Town hall at Aurelius Wednesday before Highway Commissioner George G. Taylor to consider the application of the Auburn & Syracuse railroad for permission to extend its tracks to the Lehigh Valley crossing in West Genesee street in the town of Aurelius. The hearing was largely attended and the sentiment of many of the residents of the town was that they wanted the trolley road to continue its tracks along the highway to the village of Cayuga. Attorney Thomas M. Hunt represented the railroad company. Commissioner Taylor has the matter under consideration.

JOHN CHOATE IS DEAD.

Octogenarian Had Long Been Prominent in the Life of Auburn.

Former Sheriff John Choate, one of the oldest and best known men of the county, died Wednesday at the home of his brother, Thomas N., No. 14 Orchard street. His death was the result of a stroke suffered Wednesday morning. He was found in his brother's yard and removed to the house. He never rallied and death ensued that evening.

Mr. Choate was born in Lansingburg, Rensselaer county, N. Y., October 25, 1824, being the second son in a family of seven children of Joseph and Sarah Choate. He was educated in the Auburn public schools and upon the completion of his school life went into his father's store where he learned the hardware business, going into the business, succeeding his father, in 1854, the firm name being Choate Bros. The business was continued until a few months ago when Mr. Choate retired, being succeeded by Post & Duncan. During his business career his life was strikingly illustrated by his fidelity to duty and strict integrity and he occupied a high plane in the mercantile world.

In 1852 Mr. Choate went to the California gold fields, being one of a party which made a perilous trip around Cape Horn. Fortune smiled upon him in the West and he acquired considerable wealth. He remained there about two years and then returned to Auburn. The deceased had extensive holdings in the Alabama mining region.

When the War of the Rebellion broke out Mr. Choate enlisted in Company H, Seventy-fifth New York Volunteer Infantry, in September, 1861, going to the seat of war as captain, he having been the means of raising the company. After 18 months' active he was forced to resign owing to ill health and resumed his business in Auburn.

On January 7, 1851, Mr. Choate married Miss Rachel Chappel, of Aurelius. He was an active member of the First Baptist church for many years and one of its most honored officers. In politics Mr. Choate was a Republican and during his life was the recipient at the hands of the voters of several public positions, being alderman of the Third ward for six years. He was chairman of the Republican County committee in 1876 during the Hayes campaign and in 1879 was elected sheriff of Cayuga county, which office he filled satisfactorily. He was an esteemed member of Seward Crocker Post, G. A. R. and years ago was an enthusiastic member of the old volunteer fire department, being foreman of a company for seven years.

Mr. Choate is survived by three brothers, Thomas N., of this city; Joseph H., of Concrete, Oklahoma, and George, of Helena, Mont. He also leaves two sisters, Miss Emily, of this city, and Mrs. Amanda Cornell, of Williamsport, Pa.

The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at his home, 14 Orchard street. Burial will be made in Fort Hill.

AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

Members of Baraca Class of the Weedsport Baptist Church Entertain.

Weedsport, Sept. 21.—The members of the Baraca class of the Baptist church entertained a number of their friends last evening at a clam bake on the Seneca river. The Hamilton club tendered the use of its club house for the occasion and naptha launches were provided to carry the party from the dock to the club house and return. Athletic games were indulged in during the afternoon and in the evening about 70 covers were laid and a banquet served which was heartily enjoyed by all.

Irving DeLamater, as toastmaster, introduced Rev. L. A. Pickett, pastor of the Baptist church, who made a few remarks in behalf of the Baraca class. He greeted those present and extended an invitation to attend the church services and the meetings of the class, and said they desired all to feel that they were welcome at all times.

Among the other after dinner speakers were Benjamin F. Selmser, Stephen Cottle, F. H. Gilbert, H. T. Morrison and Frank Jacobs.

As a social event, the occasion was a decided success and those present could not help feeling uplifted and brought nearer the common goal of mankind. The guests were greeted with hearty handshakes and were made to feel that the Baraca class was interested in their welfare. Such occasions lead to better things.

SIX TERMS IN PRISON.

And Immediately Re-Arrested on Release From Clinton.

LEROY SHEAR'S STRANGE CAREER

Said to Be One of the Greatest Living Forgers—Sentenced to Be Shot For Desertion and Poisoning Guards. Escaped and Afterwards Led an Exemplary Life For Years.

Plattsburg, Sept. 21.—Leroy Shear, said to be one of the greatest living forgers, was released from Clinton prison at Dannemora yesterday and was immediately rearrested and turned over to Police Inspector Alfred N. Douglas, who started with him for Boston, where he is charged with swindling R. H. White & Co.

Shear, who is 67 years old, has had a most remarkable career. In 1863 he deserted from the federal army, was captured and while a prisoner at Utica, N. Y., poisoned two of his guards in an attempt to escape. For this he was tried by court martial and sentenced to be shot. On the day set for his execution he received a reprieve from President Lincoln, and before it expired succeeded in escaping. On the day of his escape he was pardoned by the president, but did not know of it until years after.

Shear went to Europe, where he remained for several years, finally returning to the United States and settling in Vermont, where he led an exemplary life and secured a position in a bank. On being recommended for a federal appointment at St. Albans he went to Washington and asked President Hayes for the pardon which had years before been granted to him. The president on learning his history refused to give him the appointment and the people of the town in which he lived upon learning the reason, turned against him and he lost his position in the bank.

While living in Vermont he was a delegate to the Republican national convention which nominated President Garfield. He has since served two terms for grand larceny and forgery in Sing Sing and one term each in the Albany penitentiary, Auburn state prison, Moundsville, W. Va., penitentiary and Clinton prison.

Shear is wanted by the Boston authorities for uttering a forged check on March 10, 1902. It is alleged that Shear bought about $40 worth of goods at the R. H. White company store, tendering in payment a check for $100, drawn on the Central National bank of Pittsburg. The check, which was made payable to C. H. Walters and was certified with a hand stamp, later proved to be a forgery.

Bill to Enjoin Supreme Council.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Twenty-five members of the local council of the Royal Arcanum filed a bill in the federal court here to enjoin the supreme council of the order from proceeding under the new rules and assessments adopted at Atlantic City. The complainants concede the right of the supreme council to raise the assessments but contend that their recent action was unjust because it raised the rates of old men and lowered that charged young men. The bill also seeks to prevent the use of the emergency fund for any other purpose than that of paying premiums and policies of old men, for which it was intended and created.

FORTUNE IN TRUNK.

Albert Hertze Sold Pins, Etc, From House to House.

Kingston, N. Y., Sept. 21.—With $30,000 in bonds and bankbooks showing deposits of $10,000 in his possession, Albert Hertze, a Hebrew peddler, died alone in the Kingston City hospital Monday night, and last night the members of several Jewish congregations and societies were making strenuous efforts to ascertain his identity and to locate members of his family.

Hertze came to Kingston three weeks ago. A few days later he became ill and was removed to the hospital suffering from peritonitis. He had been boarding with Mrs. Tietzer in East Union street, with whom he had stopped on his numerous visits to Kingston and Ulster county. He had been coming here regularly for 20 years, and while it was generally supposed that he was making a comfortable living, no one thought that he had accumulated a fortune.

Immediately after his death members of the Congregational Agudath Achim, with whom he had worshipped at different times, took charge of his effects at the Tietzer house. Among the effects was a small hand-trunk, double-locked. The trunk was unlocked with keys taken from a blue ribbon which hung around the dead man's neck. Besides his clothing there were found several bank books issued by New York City Savings banks. The amount of deposits aggregated $10,000.

At the bottom of the trunk, in a long envelope, were found thirty $1,000 bonds of the United States Steel Corporation.

From papers taken from Hertze's wallet it was thought that Hertze had a sister, named Catherine, living in Clinton street, New York City. New York Jewish societies which were communicated with were unable to locate the sister.

For many years Hertze had traveled from hamlet to hamlet, through New York State and the West, selling pins, needles, fancy stationary and cheap jewelry, such as peddlers usually carry.
