

UNIVERSALISM-CALVINISM

REV. MR. BARTHOLOMEW CLAIMING THAT THE ONE IS A COROLLARY OF THE OTHER.

Quoting Calvinistic Theologians and the Scriptures to maintain his Position. Rev. Mr. Bartholomew, of the Universalist church, preached last evening on "the Universalist conclusion from the very Premises of Calvinism," taking II Timothy ii, 15, for his text.

It is a well known fact that Universalism originally sprung from Calvinism and existed in closest connection with it. It is also a significant fact that about the same time the greatest theological genius of the nineteenth century, Schleiermacher, was likewise holding the doctrine of universal salvation in connection with the Calvinistic doctrine of election.

THE FORTY HOURS.

Now Being Celebrated at the Holy Family Church.

The Forty Hours Adoration commenced with the high mass at the Holy Family church yesterday morning. The ceremonies being impressive and solemn.

Rev. Joseph Netzel, of St. Alphonsus church, read the high mass, after which the ceremony of exposition took place. The beautiful marble altar was exquisitely decorated with cut flowers, ferns and tropical plants, and from the pinnacles which surmount the table of the altar, similar was twined in graceful loops, the bright green foliage of the vine in strong contrast to the highly polished marble of the altar.

The altar was filled with the choicest of roses and cut flowers and numerous wax tapers whose varying lights shone like so many stars lent a splendor to the scene. The ceremony of the exposition was impressive, and after chanting the litany of the saints, a solemn benediction and the ceremony of exposition followed. In the evening the benediction of the blessed sacrament was preceded by a sermon. Masses were read at 5, 6, and 7 o'clock, and high mass at 9 o'clock this morning. Masses will be read at the same hours to-morrow and Wednesday mornings. The adoration will close with a solemn high mass Wednesday morning.

THE WOMAN'S IDENTITY.

It Was Rose Brisson of Geneva Who Slept in the Snow Friday Night. Saturday night the identity of the woman who was found sleeping in the snow was ascertained, when Officer Peter Callanan was called to the church to put out a strange woman who insisted on staying there all night.

He found the same woman whom he had ejected from the church the night before about 9:30 o'clock. On Friday night she evidently remained in front of the church until 8 a. m. When brought to the City hall Saturday night she gave her name as Rose Brisson and asked that her sister be sent for to Geneva. It developed that she was a niece of Frank Clark of Clark street, and came here about three weeks ago. She has been considered a little queer by her family, and she was sent here to see if a change would have a beneficial effect. Her mania is religion, and during nearly all of Saturday night she knelt in an attitude of prayer in her cell in the new lock up.

Of Interest to All. Mr. John S. Davies will open a new stock of Boots and Shoes, at 81 Genesee street, about the first week in March. CAYUGA PRESBYTERY.

Its Assemblies, To-day in This City—A Grievance.

The Presbytery of Cayuga held an adjourned session in the class rooms of the Central Presbyterian church this morning, commencing at 11 o'clock and opening with the usual devotional exercises.

Rev. D. I. Biggard of Owasco, was chosen to act as moderator with Rev. Clarence H. Beebe of Port Byron as permanent, and Rev. C. C. Hemenway of the Central church stated clerks. Rev. Thomas M. Gunn, of the Presbytery of Idaho, was present and was invited to sit as a corresponding member of the presbytery.

After the preliminaries of opening the session were over, the clerk called the roll to which fifteen members responded. The statement of grievances received for and against several young ladies of Westminster church was read before the Presbytery and the matter discussed at some length. The session then took a recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The trouble at Westminster church was still further discussed at the afternoon session of the Presbytery. It appears that a misunderstanding occurred between the pastor, Rev. A. S. Hughey, and a few members of his choir, which seemed to magnify, as the session of the church took it up. Rev. Mr. Hughey's resignation naturally gave a different aspect to the trouble which, as the akin was untangled by the Presbytery, proved to be nothing more or less than a little misunderstanding caused by a few hastily spoken words on the part of both the pastor and members of the choir.

HE IS GOING TO THE MEETING.

A Mugwump Who Means to be at the Court House To-night.

To the Editor: I have seen a call for an indignation meeting to be held at the Court house this evening, but strangely the promoter or promoters of the project have neglected to subscribe their names. This omission or neglect, I suspect, will not detract materially from the force of the call, for the hands with the empty palm and the true inwardness of the matter were exposed in the Dispatch this morning.

If a signature had been subscribed to the call it would, if bona fide, have been "the Morning Dispatch Association." The effect would only be to deepen the mystery for the said association, I believe, is as much a myth in reality, as the host of "indignant Republicans," alleged to have conceived the idea of pricking the bubble of pent up wrath in public exhibition to-night. A consideration of those and other things rather increases my interest in this meeting, and I am going with some of my neighbors to the meeting and hear the host of Republican grievances. A MUGWUMP.

Another Test Proposed.

To the Editor: I see by the papers that the Republicans are to hold a meeting this evening to protest against the confirmation of Gen. Knapp as postmaster. It seems to me they could more forcibly express their indignation next Tuesday. They say that three-fourths of the Republicans are opposed to this nomination. If three, fourths of the Republicans would go to the polls on Tuesday, and vote the Democratic city and ward tickets it would give the Democrats about 1,500 majority, and elect all the ward officers, would not that be the wisest course? Would it not cause Messrs. Everts and Hiscock to enquire into the meaning of it, and could there be but one answer? LOOKER ON.

Funeral of Lizzie Toole.

The funeral of Miss Lizzie Toole, who died on Friday morning last, took place from the family residence, 187 Seymour street, this morning at 9 o'clock, and later from St. Mary's church. The remains reposed in a broadcloth covered casket, almost hid by a profusion of beautiful cut flowers, besides several floral designs presented by sympathizing friends. Among the number was "the rock of ages" from the employees of Dunn & McCarthy, a large floral cross from the foreman of A. W. Stevens & Son, and a large floral cross from her associates in the Garden street shoe shop. The deceased was a member of the Holy Family church, but owing to the forty hours adoration at that church, the services were held from St. Mary's. Rev. Father Clune read a requiem high mass and conducted the impressive funeral service.
