HIGH SCHOOL SWAMPS OSSINING

Local Players Roll Up Score of 60-6—Boyce and Krueger Fatten Up Their Scoring Averages.

GAME IN DETAIL.

The well-oiled scoring machine of Poughkeepsie High School's basketball quintet was in perfect working condition Thursday night and Boyce and Krueger, speedy forwards for the Blue and White team, fattened up their scoring averages at the expense of the representatives from Ossining High School. The game was played in the main gymnasium of the local Y. M. C. A. and after the smoke of the battle—a great one-sided one—had cleared P. H. S. was ahead with the scoring standing 60-6. There was an attendance of about 200 students and alumni of the school.

Although the down-river schoolboys were heralded as having a speedy team they failed to display much of their speed or skill in the game with the Blue and White aggregation. In the first half after four minutes of play P. H. S. made its first basket and after that the ball rolled into the meshes to add more points to the local boys' score with such frequency that it was an effort for the scorers to keep their figures up to the minute.

Soon after the whistle had blown to start off the game Boyce and Krueger launched their passwork tactics and the ball was in the territory of the Blue and White's goal practically all of the time. First one and then another member of the P. H. S. team would find the cure for a field goal and long before the end of the first half it was quite apparent that Ossining would not repeat its performance of last year when it defeated P. H. S. on the down river court. The contest was a clean one from start to finish. The visitors had two giants in their line-up and two small players. These big fellows looked powerful and big enough to make things interesting for their considerably smaller opponents but their efforts were exceptionally poor.

Every member of the locals played an excellent game in all departments while Ossining's passwork was greatly lacking. Schwartz, Boyce, Krueger, and Knausa were the individual heroes of the game while Whitting and Barrett played best for Ossining.

St. Mary's School team met defeat in the preliminary contest, which was played previous to the big game, at the hands of the Y. M. C. A. Crescents by the score of 17-8. In this game the "Crescents" players completely outclassed their opponents and scored at will. A summary of the big game is given below:

HOLD FUNERAL OF MISS SAGENDORPH

The funeral of Miss Dorothy Johnson Sagendorph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sagendorph, of 31 Adriance Avenue, held Thursday afternoon, was attended by an unusually large number of relatives and friends, including many former classmates at Vassar College and members of the faculty.

Services were conducted at two o'clock by the Rev. Clifford P. Case, pastor of the Reformed Dutch Church, of which Miss Sagendorph was an active member and regular attendant. The Rev. Herman Hagemann, of Claverack, assisted, who read the scriptures and prayers.

Many beautiful floral pieces were received. There were no bearers, porters being in attendance. Interment was in the Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery under the direction of Irving G. Storm, undertaker.

To Thomas Whitman's Stand. Governor Whitman's stand on the local option issue will be discussed Sunday morning at the Tabernacle Baptist Church. The pastor's topic will be "The Dawn of a New Day." Evidence of the rapid advance of temperance sentiment throughout the nation will be given and many features of the Optional Prohibition Remonstrance Bill now before the Legislature will be explained. "A Priceless Possession" will be the pastor's topic for Sunday evening. Baptism will follow the sermon.

With Field's Minstrels. Leo Doran and William O'Brien, two well known local dancers and comedians, who have appeared on several occasions before Poughkeepsie audiences, have joined the A. G. Field's Greater Minstrels and are now touring northern New York with the company.

Civilization.

Civilization, the million dollar production. Many pacifists believe Civilization will have some effect in preventing future wars that is already bearing the fruits of its intentions we know.

Word has come through a representative from abroad who is there to market the production, that he succeeded in disposing of it to England. The board of censors there gave their permission at once. The picture has been exhibited with marked success throughout all the English provinces, admission tickets selling at prices ranging from three dollars to fifteen dollars per seat.

Six weeks ago it was shown in Germany to the board of censors as it is the custom to do. It met with great approval by all present who were greatly moved, giving evidence in tears. But the statutes forbid the exhibition of same. However, soon after the prominent officials of the Kaiser saw the picture, immediately overtures for peace were begun. It is sincerely hoped the prophecy of President Wilson will come true. Every man, woman and child should see this picture.

JANE COWL IN "LILAC TIME."

Selwyn & Company will present Jane Cowl at the Collingwood Opera House, Monday evening, January 31st, in "Lilac Time" a new play written by Miss Cowl in collaboration with Miss Jane Murfin. This will be the first appearance of the famous actress who created Mary Turner in "Within the Law" and many other celebrated actresses who created Mary Turner in "Within the Law" and many other celebrated roles, in the combined position of star and author. The play is a delightful romance of love and springtime as the title indicates—its scenes are laid in rural France and Miss Cowl in the role of a young Peasant girl is said to have a portrayal which will enable her to bring into play every whit of her wonderful talent. The supporting cast is of unusual excellence and includes Orms Caldara, Henry Stephenson, Cecil Yapp, Harry Hanlon, Henry Crocker, Charles Edsall, Laurence Grant, Mayne W. Linton, Leslie Austen, Louise Coleman, Herbert Jolley, Michellette Burani and Emile Detramont.

"OH! OH! DELPHINE" The announcement of the coming of "Oh! Oh! Delphine" to the Collingwood on Friday, February 2d will be of more than usual interest to patrons of musical comedy. This piece is now on tour. It was presented for an entire season at the Knickerbocker and New Amsterdam Theatres, New York, and its presentation here is regarded as one of the biggest events of the season.

"Oh! Oh! Delphine" is founded on a French farce by Georges Berr and Marcel Guillemard, which ran for more than a year in Paris. The adaptation was made by C. M. B. Lallas and the music was composed by Mrs. Cary who made the adaptation and wrote the score of "The Pink Lady" and "The Little Cafe."

ROLAND R. DENNIS DIES AT AUBURN

Poughkeepsie has been informed of the death of Roland R. Dennis, of Auburn, N. Y., formerly of this city.

Mr. Dennis while here was active in civic affairs and served as a member of the board of police commissioners. In that capacity he was instrumental in having the present fire bell installed in its former position in the old steel tower which stood back of the city hall, on the site now occupied by the police garage.

He resided at that time in the old Elsworth house, now the Fringle Memorial Home. For many years Mr. Dennis was associated with Adriance, Platt & Company in the capacity of European representative and later he associated with the local plant. He severed his connections with that company in 1891.

Mr. Dennis was at one time associated with the United States government as commercial agent. He was an expert in the line of agricultural implements.

He was a veteran of the Civil War, where he served on the staff of General Clinton D. MacDougal. He was also a member of the Loyal Legion.

After throwing up their hats because politics is over for four years, the American people are now called upon by the politicians to begin deciding who shall be elected president in 1920.

Two Power Ranges -a "Dual Personality" Car The "Loafing" Range

Economical Operation

In its "loafing" range it exhibits all the admirable traits you would expect in an eighty horsepower eight of real class.

And through all its varied performance in its "loafing" range, it is automatically operating on half fuel rations—in fact it uses fuel so sparingly as to shame many a lesser powered six—even many of four.

The "Sporting" Range

Extravagant Performance

You have only to open the throttle wider to release her double poppets and give her full fuel rations—and utterly change her whole character.

Now you have brute power and speed that puts all ordinary contenders at your mercy—you have nothing to fear from even the few cars that rightly claim the distinction of real class.

Let us give you a demonstration unlike any you ever had.
