A TRECE U DUMANT STATEMENT

.

-

The second s

	THE TEMPERANCE UNION NEW ROOMS	READY FOR BUSINESS.	HON. W. F. SHESHAN,		THE PATTERBONIANS.	ALL READY.
	Permaily Opened Lest Reening with an	The Democratic Executive Committee Or-	Mis Arrival in the Oby and Reception-To-	The Mandman Badge Which is to be Pre-	They Muss Newtonied a dounty Ticket-	The Arrengements for Unveiling the · z	Ryderin in mond.	ganizes with Fred M. Smith as Servicey.	Speak at the Burris To-night.	senied to Bim To-day.	. Other Senere County News,	ment to the Mamory of Hopey P.
	The new rooms of St. Mary's Temper-	- The Democratiq Executive committee	Hon. William F. Sheehau, the Demo-	The survivors of the 111th regiment,	WATERLOO, Oct., 15A respectable	About Completed.
		met in Judge Teller's office, yesterday		Third brigade, First division of the Seo-	quots of our citizens drove out to Canogs,	ATLANTA, Ga., Och. 15,-The i
•		afternoon. After settling on the arrange-		and Army Corps, are holding their reun-	yesterday, to witness the unveiling of the	image of Henry W: Grady has
,		ments for the reception of Mr. Sheehan,	the Burtis, to-night arrived in the city	ion to day in Newark. It is the first	Red Jacket monument.	placed in position and preparation
				general reunion held by this noted regi-	The marriage of Miss Leab, only daugh-	nearly completed for the unwilling
•	flects much credit upon the young ladies	rue committee bloosened to choose a neo-		ment, which was known during the war		takes place on Wednesday next. O
р 2	who had it in charge. The first number		Mack, editor, of the Buffalo Times,	as the heave Hancook Corns with Ganeral	Miller of Wisconsin occurred yesterday	Alexander Doyle, the sonluter au
		The County Democracy representatives	Mr. Sheehan was met at Syracuse	C. D. Mac Dougall of this city as	at high noon, at St. Paul's church. The	tended the work of placing the t
	Henri Fischer, which was rendered in a	raised objections to Mr. Stow and H. W.		colonel. A large delegation from	astriadioream roses. Ray, Dr. Dufficielle	The platform in front of the C finished manner. Mr. Fischer responded	Danoble Bollinsted Field R. Subon.	utive committee, James C. Stout, Dr. M. P. Conway, P. M. Herron, Walter A.	Auburn left this morning. Among the	ciated. Following the caremony, a re-	house is in course of erection
	the second second second has	the diamen Domograph symposed a will.	Hyrne and Messra, Day Trowbridge,	number were Major R. J. Myers, Charles	ception took place at the home of the	a grand rush is being ma
ĵ		the County Democracy expressed a will- ingness that Mr. Durston have the nam-	James Bohan, W. W. Clifton.	J. Stupp, M. W. Murdock, R. R. Gard- ner, Jay E. Storke, Dr. E. S. Forman,	bride after which the bridal party took	obtain tickets for the several ing of the secretary. They were not satis-	There was no brass band to meet Mr.	Charles Thompson, James A. Donahue,	A Democratic club in the interests of	sand seats, that it will co
.	and victin duo by William and Mame	fied with Mr. Smith. Mr. Babcock was	Sheehan on his arrival but there were dozens of enthusiastic Democrats, anxious	Charles W. Jonnings and William Fer-	the election of Flower and Sheehan was	The monument committee has is Donnott word solos by Miss Etta	unwilling to withdraw the name of Mr.	to look on the candidate, whom the Repub-	guwn. Gen, Mac Dougall accompanied	organized here on Tuesday night. George	manifesto acknowledging the un
	Much - July (Jollophan Miss Mars)	Smith and the County Democracy repre- sentatives then named Andrew Kraus.	licans describe as the "blue eyed, red	notice. The survivors of the regiment	Donnelly is president and there are thir- teen vice presidents and an executive	tribute to Mr. Devie for his work Hayden and Mrs. Conder. Geo.	The vote was five and five. Judge	headed candidate." He greeted all cor- dially and many of the crowd pressed	have taken this occasion to show public-	committeee of eighteen gentlemen.	knew Mr. Grady, whom to know k	O. Miles sang a comic song as did	Teller cast the dividing vote in favor of	forward to shake his hand. They saw		The other officers are A. G. Mercer, cor-
· · ·	his little son, Walter. Mr. Tremaine	Mr. Smith.	the blue eyes, which show no signs of	the general as a soldier, and through Maine Myory will present him with one	responding secretary; E. W. Park, re- cording secretary; Edward Nugent,	private outsiness in Atlanca will hondast during the operation sang a waltz song in a pleasing manner.		fatigue, but the hair which has been de-	of the finest general's badges ever seen in	cording scorowery, zarwaru reagene,	mittee, which is on its way to Alt
3	corded a generous applause. After the	from further connection with the com-	scribed as red is not even suburn but is blonds of which a society bells might be	this section of the country. The badge	Charles A. Genung is making prepara-	bring Gov. Hill and his party to 1
÷ +	last number Rev. Father Mulheron ad-	mittee, which adjourned.	.proud.	consists of a goad crows Diece endoased :	tions to remove to his new house across	will leave Albany Sunday and
- 10	dressed a few words to the members of		After the cordial greeting which was	with the number of the regiment. From this is suspended a badge of red, white	Mrs. Dr. Day left town yesterday to	Atlanta Tuesday afternoon, stopri
	the society congratulating them on the	Stehness Among Children,	extended to the candidate in the depot the crowd seconted him to the Osberne	and blue site as maked in instance is	join her husband who is solourning at In-	where the governme is expected in comfortable and luxurious spartments in which they have installed themselves	Especially infants, is prevalent more or	have a have be take diverse any and any	attached as a pendant a general's	dependence. Is.	a speech before Democratic cln and arking criticity to constrate resentantly		to a reception which he will hold in the	later with the bounds of prine	Herbert Sherwood of this village is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever	of Brooklyn, John A. Mc Call an(
	in the cause for which they are so seal-	giving proper nourishment and whole-	parlors commencing at 3 p. m.	in blue enamel. In the center of the	at Syracuse, where he has been engaged	J. P. Earl of New York, Gen.
-	ously isooring. He hoped to see inc so-	some food. The most successful and re- liable of all is the Gail Borden "Eagle"	A CASE DISMISSED.	trefoil is a fine diamond of the first	in the Central-Hudson freight office.	Lathrop, Asst. Adjt. Gen. Mc Ew ÷			_	water valued at over $200. The entire	The $400 piano which was drawn as a	others. On the night of their arri made for memoryes. The was personal	devezist keen it.	Que of Game Protector Carr's Presecutions	worthy recognition of General Mac-	prize at the recent Hydrant Hose fair in Genera was manufactured here.	party will be tendered a reception ! Northen at the executive mansion
:	and well pleased with the step onward they were taking in the cause of		Fails to the Ground.	Dougall's brave service during the war.	The Republican Pattersonians have
- 14-	temperance. After Father Mulheron's	BULLETINED NEWS.	In court, yesterday afternoon, No. 30	The usual speechmaking will follow and		Ingala' Shee Store.
	remarks, the many boxes provided by the	Two men were discharged from the	on the Calendar was called. It was a	a camp fire will be held in the evening.	ber of assembly; Edward Camidy for sheriff and John L. Haster for justice-	Entire stock of Boose and Sho Indies present were auctioned off by John	prison this morning.	case of the people of the State of New		for sessions. The Monginites have	closed out at onee, by order of as
 1	Colbert and John Gallagner, and the en- joyment of the evening lasted until near-		York against George R. Pearson, a farm-	NOW IT'S RUNNER BYRNES.	nominated W. T. Seymour for member of	Ladies' fine kid button $1, form
	ly midnight, when the party dispersed.	Low prices on Pictures and Frames at Carpenter and Son's.	er of the town of Ownsoo, for violating	His Bacher Mr. Ruddy Has Something to	assembly; Augustus McIntyre for sheriff,	$1.50; an elegant, ladies' kid butto
	The new rooms of the society are pleas-		the law in spearing trout in November	Boy to Wr. Lynch.	and Charles Marshall for justice of ses- sions. The result of this may be that the	former price $2; a very fine pair for former price $3.50.
	antly situated in the Sheldon block on Genesee street opposite the Court house.	P. J. Halsinger of Newark, N. J., is in	last by jack-light. Protector Carr of	Se ran Barron:	Democratic ticket will be elected, while it	You cannot afford to miss this a
	They have been newly papered and paint-	town attending court.	Union Springs was notified of Petersou's manner of securing fish and others in	In regard to the article by Mr. Lynch	will be wonderfully interesting to see ed and a fine Brussels carpet covers the	C. M. Mults and family have moved to	that neighborhood were complained of.	in your issue of the 9th inst., I wish to	which side of the Republican split gets the most votes.	Bedmond on Parmell.
	long floor. The furniture consisting of	Auburn Weedsnort Sentinel.	He spent some days looking up the case	say that my proposition to Mr. Lynch		DUBLIN, Oct. 15.—United Irela tables, desks, chairs, etc., is of antique oak and a handsome Wegman piano to		which was yesterday brought to trial. The testimony in the case was rather	have an even and the floor of a state	say that Canoga never had as large a	nellite, publishes a communicati match the furniture occupies a prominent		I weak and the case was dismissed on the	he another, the two judges then to se-	crowd in its limits before, nor never will	the pen of J. E. Redmond, position near the rostrum. No expense		lavidence of the prosecution. District	iect a starter on the groundl	have again, as that which witnessed the	Member of Parliament for Ner has been spared in fitting up the new rooms.		Attorney A. P. Rich appeared for the	and that the man thus chosen	Jacket's memory at that place yesterday.	ford, in which that gentlems
	· · · ·	was in Syracuse yesterday on business.	people and Lyon & Pierce were counsel for the defence.	should start the runners by pistol shot.	The funeral of the deceased Mrs. I.	THE REGREES TREND OF
	See those bargains at the Ladies' Shoe		When court opened this morning there	Mr. Lynch would not agree to this pro-	Race will occur from the late residence	liberty, and the greatest er
	Store.	glasses for sale by Sherwood, the Optician.	was no case ready for trial and a recess
	New York Inventors.	Mrs. B. M. Wilcox and Mrs. Frank	was taken until 2 o'clouk p. m.	whom he would accept as starters, one of	o'clock.	foulest slander, hunted to death
-		Barney returned from Syracuse last even-		whom was Fred Vokes, king of job sprinters, who has the reputation of	Mrs. John Finnegan was found dead on her bed yesterday with her clothes on at	the satisfaction of the pharmens
·	Washington, officially reports to the	ing.	Edwin Day.	throwing a man for $1.50 or. Lynch's	I REF FERICIEDOS IN SW80Y REFEEL DY UNOTES	ocrites of England. The scandal
	BULLETIN the following complete list of	Miss Tholens is in Auburn, the quest of	The case of Bowers H. Leonard against	side partner Jud. Dennison of Waterloo.	Finnegan who had tried to gain an en-	of Brtain should now be satisfied natents granted this week to residents of	her friend, Miss BowerSpracuse Jour-	Frederick C. Oakley was referred to Hon. H. V. Howland,	Of course I could not agree to him as a	trance by the door but had to take a lad- der and get in the window. The stove	other Hem has been added to the
	this part of the State: C. M. Bucking	nal.	In the case of the D. M. Osborne Co.	starter. I have nerconally arranged for five	abowed evidence that she had been getting	lapd will some time nav the d ham, Utica, butter printer: A. J. Barber,	Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones of South	against Albert F. McGuire for amount	traces for Mr. Lynch and procured the	is meal as the articles were burned and	Taus, Sodue, car vestibule and step therefor;	istreet left last evening for a few weeks	due on a note, a judgment of $123.80 was	hacking for him and, in three out of those	the fire gone out, Coroner Seamen was

	7. A. Hollenbeck, Batavia, lock for fire-	absence in Florida.	ordered for the plaintiff.	five races the starting was by pistol shot,	potified. He did not see fit to empanel a	Fail Opening arms; E. G. Latta, Friendship, velocipede;		The case of John H. Pendell against	and one of the five was of post show,	jury and was satisfied that death resulted	Of Dress Goods and Parisian Tr
	J. B. Marston, Buffalo, and J. W. Feenv.	Prof. I. V. Flagler lectures this evening	Edward De Forest was dismissed.	Lynch against Mr. Byrnes and was ar-	from natural cause.	to match; at DONAMUE & To
•	Elmira, wick-raiser; H. G. Paine and	in Buffalo. His subject will be "Cele-	In the case of Saly I. Mayer against	ranged for a scratch start, and Mr. Lynch
	J. WEICH, UVICA, BRF-ICCE; E. C. TICOE-	bratad Composers."	William E. Keyler as sheriff and Thomas	found fault with me for not making an	Beautiful effects in Jet Novelties,	- No. 3 S
	uor, Ithaca, folding bedstead; J. D. Zim-	·	Jones as receiver of the Kheubottom of	rangements for start by pistol in that	Crowns, Laces and trimmings at Hen-	Another Pallure.
	mermann, Spring Lake, bag holder; C.	John Gordon of Portland, Oregon, who	Test Mig Co., the jury prought in a	rsce.	ocksberg's.
	D. Walcot, Russia, railway spike; Eli	has been visiting friends in town, started		Mr. Lynch's statement in regard to my	· · · · ·	AUGUSTA, Me., Oct. 15The]
	White, Sodus, folding hay rack; F. K.		the property described in the complaint	blackguarding him into an acceptance of	Freedlle Will Miss Thom.	Hubbard Mfg. Co. of Qakland h
• 1 · · · · · · ·	Wright, Syracuse, tubular-lantern.		and entitled to the pomension thereof and	the terms is simply untrue and ridiculous	The Freeville Herald has the follow-	a petition to insolvency with Five hundred and thirteen patents were	George Dixon and his troupe arrived		and is made to cover his desire to get out	ing: "For several months a gang of	amounting to short $50.000
	Repeating week. Of this humber New	from the West at 12:55 and are quartered			The solution is a second bar	Reportentif to about $00,000
· · ·	York received 84, Illinois 59, Massachu-		In the case of the National Bank of Au-	: THOMAS RUDDY.	Hungarian laborers has occupied box	Methers, ·	setts 52, Pennsylvania 48. Citizens of	Mrs. E. O. Smith, formerly a resident	burn against John C. Anderson to re-	Seneca Falis, Oct. 15.	cars belonging to the L. V. R. R. here. An foreign countries received 31.	of this city, died at her home 191 Tremont	cover smount due on a note a judgement		engine and a train of gravel cars have	You can buy Shoes for your li street Rochester, last week.	of abo was granted the pranting.	FOUND DEAD.	also been stationed here, and the little	dren for 10, 15, 25, 35, 50 and Gent's fine calf dress Shoes, at $1.99 a. pair. at KNOX & KNOX'S.		At the opening of court this afternoon the licel case of George L. Morse	William H. Firth's Sudden Domise_A Vol-	band of foreigners all through the sum-	Ingells', 18 North St. Entire at
		Tent No. 61, Order of the Helping	and the line is assessing of		Land of lotergners at whough we same	Alorad out Von cannot offen
	18 State St., Opp. Clark St.		Syracuse was called. The case	oran Gono.	mer months, would go to their work in	this prest sale
	A Xingbird.	Fireman's hall this evening.	seemed to have excited considerable	William H. Firth who has been em-	the morning and return at night with	Anto Ricert Baro
• .	-		interest The count second with proting	ployed by Choate & Bros., for years as a	the regularity of clock work. They have proved themselves to be a very in-
1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 - 1997 -	There will be a king bird tournament		woll filled Warmy () (Suching is conned)		dustrious, quiet and inoffensive lot of	Upon which fingershould the
· · · ·	under the auspices of the Forest City Gun	waxwords in the world." First Baptist	for the standard and the same Manthematica			ring be placed after the wed club at Frontenac Besch on Cayuga lake	church, Friday evening, 15c.	& Androws of Synactics for the Harald	House And to diverse and the B	but friendly feelings toward them. On	mony is one of many questions on Thursday and Friday of next week,		COMPANY.	about 5 o'clock. Mr. Firth had been	Monday morning they were removed to	an answer. When a marriag
	• • •		The cause of the action will be remem-	troubled with rheumatism for years and	Omean when the millored company has	I meen mie enkakement ontmet :-
	$100 in prizes guaranteed. The shooting		bered by Auburnians, generally.	as he had been complaining of pains in	some work to do, from whence they will	I wanterrea, Just Derore and ( will be open to all and American associa-	chulten at scott Center, Cortiana county.		The region of the beart for some withe to the	be taken to Auburn for the winter. They	from the third finger of the le tion rules will govern. Moneys will be		A Lopublican Meeting.	thought ms destri was the result of	will be missed here by our merchants	the same finger on the right.
4	divided 40, 30, 20 and 10 per cent. and	Ladies, call at 100 Wall St., and exam-		rheumatism of the heart.	and meat market men, as they were)
-1	intend the shot and furnish traps and	ine my stock of Millinery. I am sure		Mr. Firth was a veteran of the war.	never out of money and paid for all they	Cows and colts may be edu hiteha ane soos and formisi garaje and		Hon. J. E. Hedges, Secretary of the Re-	He leaves besides his wife two sobs, Will-	www.hassedhigh was considerable "	their work without their know
		MRS. F. H. BRAIS,	publican League Cinbs of the State of	iam C. Firth of this city, and Fred Firth	}
	We are constantly displaying new de-	Mr. Joseph Huntoon, of Auburn, is	New York, will address the Republicans	of Pittsburg to mourn his demise.		  signs in ladies', misses' and children's		of this city, at Burtis Opera House, on	Dizen To-night.
	Trimmed Hats. HENOCESSERG & Co.	of Dryden Woolen Mills - Druden	next Tuesday evening, in the interest of	•
			I THEY' THEATHAN ALCOUNTY, IT MIG TRACTCOLOL	The American Four and their specialty
	 	Herald.	the Logan Club of this city	_ · · · _		•
	Going to Chicago.		the Logan Club of this city.	company of twenty artists together with	1	^
	Going to Chicago. B. J. Wall of 48 Walnut streat Jackson	Don't forget the entertainment that	the Logan Club of this city.	company of twenty artists together with	1	or Oworage
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T.,	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight	Foll & Wint	er Overcoa
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall.	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Geneses	Fall & Winte	er Overcoa
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall.	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex-	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesees Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar	Fall & Winte	er Overcoa
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr.	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c.	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesee Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local	Fall & Winte	er Overcoa
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper-	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesees Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar	Fall & Winte	er Overcoa
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man.	Fall & Winte	er Overcoa
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last even ing's entertainment a making	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man.	Fall & Winte
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success.	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man.	Fall & Winte
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success.	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBEEG & CO. THE COUNTY.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bussuery Herse. A horse attached to one of the White	Fall & Winte
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in hehalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand-	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCKSBEEG & CO. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunsway Heree. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran	Fall & Winter
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCKREEG & CO. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Conquest. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Runsway Heree. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being	Fall & Winter	yatlowestpr
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed:	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Conquest. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunsway Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one	Fall & Winte In endless variet	yatlowestpr
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in hehalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La-	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night;	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunavery Heree. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State.	yatlowestpr
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891.	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday.	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunsway Heree. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the	Fall & Winte In endless variet in the State.	yatlowestpr
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander.	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunsway Heree. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being	Fall & Winte In endless variet, in the State.	yatlowestpr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunsway Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance.	Fall & Winte In endless variet, in the State.	yatlowestpr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token.	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg, of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunsway Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance.	Fall & Winte In endless variet in the State.	yatlowestpr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token.	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg, of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCKSBEBG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about $\frac{1}{2}$ of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur-	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunarry Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Impells'.	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token.	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street, - Senecz County Journal.	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Runnway Horse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Ingelis'. Greatest opportunity ever known to	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in hehalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inecribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor.	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg, of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street, - Seneca County Journal.	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCERBERG & Co. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Runnway Horse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Ingelis'. Greatest opportunity ever known to	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in hehalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor.	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street Senece County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A. in	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBERG & Co. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillin Swift, will be held	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunsway Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Ingelis'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy men's hand sewed, fine calf and	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongola, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street Senece County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank-	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCKSBEBG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even-	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Runsway Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Impells'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy man's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. 35 and 36 Shoes for	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1691. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongola, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at Knox & Knox's, 18 State St.,	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street Senece County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and version	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBEEG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Runsway Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Impelts'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy men's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. 35 and 36 Shoes for es 50: 24 Shoes for $2. Buy a nair before	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongola, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street Senece County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 59	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBEEG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ida and Miss Etta Slack have been	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Runsway Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Impelts'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy men's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. 35 and 36 Shoes for es 50: 24 Shoes for $2. Buy a nair before	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongols, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at KNOX & KNOX'S, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St.	Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street Senece County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 59 has leased these rooms for five year	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBEEG & Co. THE COUNIY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, 111., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ids and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunarouy Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Impalls'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy man's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. S5 and $6 Shoes for $3.50; $4 Shoes for $2. Buy a pair before it is too late.	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	yatlowestpr Call and get
	P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongola, hand sewed, dreat Shoes, $2,29 a pair, at KNOX & KNOX's, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St.	 Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 18c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street.— Seneca County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 58 has leased these rooms for five year more. 	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBERG & Co. THE COUNTY.' CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ida and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Blakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last week.	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunarouy Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Impalls'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy man's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. S5 and $6 Shoes for $3.50; $4 Shoes for $2. Buy a pair before it is too late.	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	 P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongols, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at KNOX & KNOX's, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St. Dr. Geo. H. Everett, of New York city 	 Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 18c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street.— Senece County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 58 has leased these rooms for five year more. 	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBERG & Co. THE COUNTY.' CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ida and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Blakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last week. The inspectors of election meet next	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunarouy Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Impalls'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy man's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. S5 and $6 Shoes for $3.50; $4 Shoes for $2. Buy a pair before it is too late.	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	 P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongols, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at KNOX & KNOX's, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St. Dr. Geo. H. Everett, of New York city 	 Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 18c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street.— Senece County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 58 has leased these rooms for five year more. 	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBERG & Co. THE COUNTY.' CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ida and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Blakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last week. The inspectors of election meet next	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunanery Herse. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Inpuls'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy men's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shoes. $5 and $6 Shoes for $3.50; $4 Shoes for $2. Buy a pair before it is too late.	Fall & Winte In endless variet; in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get
	 P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Lebor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a handsome gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central Labor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongols, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at KNOX'S, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St. Dr. Geo. H. Everett, of New York city will open a course of lectures to-morrow 	 Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mra. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg, of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street.— Seneca County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A. in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 59 has leased these rooms for five year more. The colored ladies of the M. B. E. so ciety will hold their seventh annual re- cention and dance this seventh annual re- cention and dance the seventh annual re- cention and dance this seventh annual re- cention and dance the seventh annual re- cention and dance this seventh annual re- cention and dance the seventh annual re- sevent of the seventh annual re- cention and dance the seventh annual re- seventhe seventhe seventhe seventhe seventhe seventhe	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBEEG & Co. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ida and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Biakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last week. The inspectors of election meet next Saturday for registration. Ezra Rhoades has moved in the village	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunsway Heree. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Impolie'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy man's hand sewed, fine calf and dongols Shoes. $5 and $6 Shoes for $3.50; $4 Shoes for $2. Bay a pair before it is too late.	Fall & Winter In endless variet, in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get st style,
	 P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand-aome gold headed cane. On the head was inacribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central Labor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of hebor. Ledies' fine Dongols, hand sewed, dream Shoes, \$2.29 a pair, at KNOX & KNOX'S, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St. Health Lesterres. Dr. Geo. H. Everett, of New York city, will open a course of lectures to-morrow evening, at the Y. M. C. A. hall, or 	 Don't forget the entertainment that Viotorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street.— Seneca County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 54 has leased these rooms for five year more. The colored ladies of the M. B. E. so ciety will hold their seventh annual re ception and dance this evening in Mrs. 	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBEEG & Co. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about $\frac{1}{2}$ of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, III., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ids and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Blakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last week. The inspectors of election meet next Saturday for registration. Ezra Rhoades has moved in the village	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunarouy Heree. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Ingelle'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy man's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. \$5 and \$6 Shoes for \$2.50; \$4 Shoes for \$2. Bay a pair before it is too late. E. N. ROSS , Laading Cash Grace	Fall & Winter In endless variet, in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get st style,
	 P. J. Wall of 48 Walnut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand-some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central Labor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongols, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at KROX & KROX's, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St. Health Lestures. Dr. Geo. H. Everett, of New York city will open a course of lectures to-morrow evening, at the Y. M. C. A. hall, or bealth Manihing models at a will be mailting models at a will be set with the set of the se	 Don't forget the entertainment that Viotorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O. G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg. of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street.— Seneca County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 54 has leased these rooms for five year more. The colored ladies of the M. B. E. so ciety will hold their seventh annual re ception and dance this evening in Mrs Luce's hall in Genesee street. This prom 	the Logan Club of this city. Our Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCKREEGS & Co. THE COUNTY.' CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 1 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ida and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Blakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last.week. The inspectors of election meet next Saturday for registration. Ezra Rhoades has moved in the village of Conquest. John Pinckney of Jordan, Onondage	company of twenty artists together with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunarouy Heree. A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Ingelle'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy man's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. $5 and $6 Shoes for $2.50; $4 Shoes for $2. Bay a pair before it is too late. E. N. ROSS , Laading Cash Grace	Fall & Winter In endless variet, in the State. the late	y at lowest pr Call and get st style,
	 P. J. Wall of 48 Wainut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a handsome gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central Labor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of habor. Ledies' fine Dongols, hand sewed, dream Shoes, \$2.29 a pair, at. KNOX & KNOX's, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St. Mr. Geo. H. Everett, of New York city will open a course of lectures to-morrow evening, at the Y. M. C. A. hall, or health. Manikins, models, etc., will be exhibited in illustrating the subjects 	 Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O, G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg, of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street.— Seneca County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 54 has leased these rooms for five years more. The colored ladies of the M. B. E. so ciety will hold their seventh annual re- ception and dance this evening in Mrs Luce's hall in Genesee street. This prom- bes to eclipse in splendor any dance giver by this south. 	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCESBEEG & Co. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about $\frac{1}{2}$ of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, III., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ids and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Blakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last week. The inspectors of election meet next Saturday for registration. Ezra Rhoades has moved in the village	company of twenty artists Eogether with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bunassay Herse . A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Jugetts'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy men's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shoes. \$5 and \$6 Shoes for \$3.50; \$4 Shoes for \$2. Bay a pair before it is too late. E. N. ROSS , Leading Cash Grocer,	Fall & Winter In endless variet in the State. the late Mars	yatlowestpr Call and get
	 P. J. Wall of 48 Wainut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a handsome gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central Labor Union. Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongols, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at. KNOX & KNOX'S, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St. Mr. Geo. H. Everett, of New York city will open a course of lectores to-morrow evening, at the Y. M. C. A. hall, or health. Manikins, models, etc., will be exhibited in illustrating the subject treated upon. The first lecture will be token will be the year will be the subject treated upon. 	 Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O, G. T., will give. Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 15c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg, of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on State street.— Seneca County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 54 has leased these rooms for five year more. The colored ladies of the M. B. E. so ciety will hold their seventh annual re- ception and dance this evening in Mrs face's hall in Genesse street. This prom- ises to eclipse in splendor any dance giver by this society. 	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCKREEG & CO. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, III., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ids and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Blakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last.week. The inspectors of election meet next Saturday for registration. Ezra Rhoades has moved in the village of Conquest. John Pinckney of Jordan, Onondage county, is in town on a visit.	company of twenty artists Eogether with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesses Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bussey Heree . A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Jagolle'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy men's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. 35 and 36 Shoes for $3.50; $4 Shoes for $2. Bay a pair before it is too late. E. N. ROSS , Leading Cash Grocer. BEST GOODS IN THE MARKET	Fall & Winter In endless variet in the State. the late Mars	y at lowest pr Call and get st style,
	 P. J. Wall of 48 Wainut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a handsome gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central Labor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1891. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of habor. Ledies' fine Dongols, hand sewed, dream Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at. KNOX & KNOX's, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St. Mr. Geo. H. Everett, of New York city will open a course of lectures to-morrow evening, at the Y. M. C. A. hall, or health. Manikins, models, etc., will be exhibited in illustrating the subjects 	 Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O, G. T., will give, Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 18c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg, of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on Btate street.— Seneca County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 59 has leased these rooms for five year more. The colored ladies of the M. B. E. so ciety will hold their seventh annual re ception and dance this evening in Mrs Luce's hall in Genessestreet. This prom- ises to eclipse in splendor any dance giver by this society. 	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCKREEGE & Co. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, III., is in town on business. Samuel Show returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ids and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Blakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last week. The inspectors of election meet next Saturday for registration. Exa Rhoudes has moved in the village of Conquest. John Pinckney of Jordan, Onondage county, is in town on a visit. THROOP.	company of twenty artists fogether with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesee Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bussney Heree . A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Ingelis'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy men's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. $5 and $6 Shoes for $3.50; $4 Shoes for $2. Buy a pair before it is too late. E. N. ROSS , Leading Cash Grocer, BEST GOODS IN THE MARKET	Fall & Winter In endless variet in the State. the late Mars	y at lowest pr Call and get st style,
	P. J. Wall of 48 Wainut street leaves for Chicago to-morrow evening where he has accepted a lucrative position. Mr. Wall has been prominently identified with the Knights of Labor in this city and last night representatives of the Central Labor Union called at his home and in behalf of the Union presented Mr. Wall with a hand- some gold headed cane. On the head was inscribed: Presented to J. P. Wall by Central La- bor Union, Auburn, October 14, 1691. Charles Parker made the presentation and Mr. Wall expressed his thanks for the token. Mr. Wall will have the best wishes of a large circle of friends in his new field of labor. Ladies' fine Dongola, hand sewed, dress Shoes, $2.29 a pair, at KNOX & KNOX's, 18 State St., Opp. Clark St. Mr. Geo. H. Everett, of New York city will open a course of lectures to-morrow evening, at the Y. M. C. A. hall, or health. Manikins, models, etc., will be exhibited in illustrating the subject treated upon. The first lecture will be free.	 Don't forget the entertainment that Victorious Lodge, No. 24, I. O, G. T., will give, Friday, Oct. 16, in Damon hall. Tickets 18c. The members of St. Mary's Temper- ance Union wish to extend their thanks to all who in any way assisted in making last evening's entertainment a success. The United States Signal Bursau at Washington predicts for this afternoon: Clearing, colder, severe frosts to-night; southwesterly winds, fair Friday and Saturday. Mrs. E. Algard and Mrs. Mary Vander- burg, of Chicago, and Mrs. D. Groom, of Auburn, are visiting at the residence of Mr. H. F. Troutman, on Btate street.— Seneca County Journal. The rooms of Branch 59 C. M. B. A, in the Hollister & Noble building in Frank- lin street have been repainted and papered and otherwised improved. Branch 59 has leased these rooms for five year more. The colored ladies of the M. B. E. so ciety will hold their seventh annual re ception and dance this evening in Mrs Luce's hall in Genessestreet. This prom- ises to eclipse in splendor any dance giver by this society. 	the Logan Club of this city. Onr Millinery attractions this season are beyond comparison both in style and elegance. Our prices will be found ex- ceedingly moderate HENOCKSBEEG & Co. THE COUNTY. CONQUEST. CONQUEST. Oct. 14.—The hardest frost of the season came last Sunday night. Ice was formed about 4 of an inch thick. Grover Lane of Belvidere, Ill., is in town on business. Samuel Snow returned Monday from a three weeks visit in Michigan. Rev. Charles Widrick and Rev. Michael Prindle attended the quarterly meeting services at the M. P. church last Satur- day and Sabbath. A reception and pound party for the benefit of Rev. Phillip Swift, will be held at the M. P. church on Wednesday even- ing of this week. Miss Ids and Miss Etta Slack have been visiting friends in Geneva. Harvey Blakeman picked a ripe straw- berry in his garden one day last week. The inspectors of election meet next Saturday for registration. Ezza Rhoades has moved in the village of Conquest. John Pinckney of Jordan, Onondage county, is in town on a visit. THEOOP. THEOOP. THEOOP.	company of twenty artists fogether with George Dixon, champion feather weight of the world will appear at the Genesee Opera house to-night. Dixon will spar four rounds with a well known local man. A Bussney Heree . A horse attached to one of the White Sewing Machine Company's wagons ran away in State street, this morning, being frightened by the steam roller, and one wheel of the wagon was damaged. The driver was thrown out but held on to the reins and stopped the horse, after being dragged a short distance. At Ingelis'. Greatest opportunity ever known to buy men's hand sewed, fine calf and dongola Shom. $5 and $6 Shoes for $3.50; $4 Shoes for $2. Buy a pair before it is too late. E. N. ROSS , Leading Cash Grocer, BEST GOODS IN THE MARKET	Fall & Winter In endless variet in the State. the late Mars	y at lowest pr Call and get st style,

	score last night was 14 to 4, the junior team doing fine work.	her forty-four daughters will be present in costume and there will be music and	We are offering to-day:	22 & 24 STATE ST., Cor. Di
The class of '95 of the High School, last	Mrs. Brown and Mrs. McKay, of Brad-	served.	SODA CRACKERS, 4 Ibs. for 250
Margaret Koon historians. The members	the City of Rome is all right and has not	LOCKE, Oct. 14Rev. A. W. Elce	GINGER SNAPS, 8 lbs. for 25e	OUR STORE IS FILLE article published in last night's Advertis.		year last Sunday. It was a very inter- esting one. His text was : "I know not anything among you except Jesus Christ		With all the er, to the effect that there is a foud existing between the Protestant and Outbolic monthly of the close and this	Miss Irene Harvey was happily sur- prised by about fifteen of her achool-	anything among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified."	ENGLISH CURRANTS, 4 lbs. for 25c morning a paper was circulated among the members declaring that there was no	mine frene Harvey was happily sur- prised by about fifteen of her school- mates and friends at her home, 216 Sey- mour street, last evening, the occasion being her thirteenth him her diverse	visited at R. D. Long's Monday and Tues- day.	CHOICE JAPAN TEA, per 1b. 250
such feud. The paper was signed by nearly everyone in the class, Protestants	enjoyed a pleasant time, and upon leav-	O. Lowe has sent his paper Fleetwood, to the races at Skanesteles this week.		FALL AND MILLINER
	Dendes this she received meny other	buckwheat and dislocated his shoulder. Dr. Putman was called to set it.	Bomething Every Day to Interest Buyers.	DURING the coming season every purchase made at our establing the a decided bargain, as our prices are positively the lowest in the city.
. See the bargains at the great Closing Out Sale of Boots and Shoes of Ingali & Co. Ladies' fine, hand turned, dongo	Volt can get direct have a	There is an immense lot of apples being barreled and shipped from this section.	HEN. KOSS,	MRS, D. WETHERBY, 70 1-2 Genesee la, button Boots, regular $4.50 and $4 goods, to close only $8. An opportunity of a life time.	of Millinery offered, at the most taranting	and hain is af surve as in having the	109 and 111 STATE ST., Tear Bridge.	mno, v. upindadi, iv 1-2 denesed
	Prices, HENOCLEBERG & Co.	Tast.	THLEPHORE II. existen	6
	PDF compression. OCR. web	optimization	with CVISION's PdfCompressor	