BULLETIN NEWS

Check at the Academy, Saturday evening. The Wheeler Rifles ball invitations go out today. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Townsend and son left for Philadelphia last night.

Boston Ideal at the Academy, Monday evening, in "Giroffe Giroffa." The Hidden Hand... Miss Lena Clarke of London, Ont., is visiting at Mr. George R. Eganberry's in this city.

An important special meeting of Branch No. 1, C. M. B. A., will be held at 7:30 to-morrow evening. Central-Hudson employees who need new winter uniforms have been directed to send in their orders.

Ex-Principal John E. Myer of Canastota, was in the city from 8:30 last evening until 11:02 this morning. The committee on decorations for the Wheeler Rifles ball is requested to meet at the armory at 7:30 to-morrow evening.

Charles E. Wright, son of Dr. George B. Wright, Sr., returned to Cleveland, O., this morning, after a three weeks visit in Auburn. Mrs. C. P. Wood, of 26 Maple street, wishes to thank her friends and neighbors for sympathy and kind offices in her recent bereavement.

The People's Theatre Co. presented "Streets of New York" in a most satisfactory fashion at the Opera House, last evening. New bill to-night.

Now that campaign times are over, the work of the Auburn Choral Society will be pushed. Regular rehearsal at Burgess & Co's music rooms to-morrow evening.

The United States Signal Bureau at Washington predicts for this afternoon slight warmer, fair weather, variable winds, generally from northwest to southwest.

The New York and London Bicycle and Roller Skating Combination left for Geneva this morning. The performance at Geneva rink last evening was well attended.

An Auburn sporting man withdrew his bets on Cleveland's carrying New York State after the incident of the wind blowing the New York placard from the Democratic barge, today.

King & Hopkins, the original Bohemian glass blowers, are giving their late rearing entertainment nightly at the late headquarters of the Sixth and Tenth Ward Bline and Logan clubs, East Genesee street.

A sky rocket stick which went up during the celebration Tuesday night came down through a skylight window into the rear of Fred Jennings's store making a clean hole in the quarter inch glass of the window.

In consequence of the meeting of the State Medical Association in New York city on the 10th and 11th of the present month the meeting of the Medical Association of Central New York is postponed from Tuesday Nov. 18, to Tuesday Nov. 25 at the same place and hour.

Relatives of Mortimer Van Aukon, who lives two miles southwest of Cayuga county, and whose barn, containing 300 bushels of wheat and a large quantity of tobacco, was burned on Sunday night, were in this city yesterday to secure the services of a detective. Chief Wright referred them to the Sheriff of Cayuga county.—Syracuse Herald.

Recorder Gulon's docket, today, showed a medley of simple drunks and drunk and disorderlies, the major portion being in minor degree of offense, and discharges predominating over penalties. The long delayed trial of Morgan Ging and Fred Hathorn, for assaulting Charles Fleckenstein several weeks ago, was in progress this afternoon, and for the same period was set down the trial of Jacob Hagan, who is charged by Officer Taylor with having been drunk and prowling about County Treasurer Cook's house at 11 o'clock last night.

Chief Crosbie has received a postal from Chief Wright of Syracuse, giving a list of articles stolen from the house of M. Ruch, No. 10th, including a sack coat containing notes and papers belonging to Frank A. Ranch, a brown Melton overcoat, her pin, bracelets, a trusscan locket, hand-bag and purse containing $3.00 neck-chain and cross, chateleine watch, cents pocket toilet case, etc.

Settled for the Damage. This morning a farmer's team ran into one of Alderman Stout's wagons at the corner where his shop stands, damaging it to some extent. The farmer, it seems, then drove rapidly away, but Officer Gray overtook him, and the farmer went back and settled with Mr. Stout for the breakage.

The Prettiest Girl. Messrs Quick, Kent and Titus, the resident committee appointed at the glass blowers' entertainment in East Genesee street, last evening, awarded to Miss Nellie Home, as the prettiest girl in the room, the prize bill of paradise. A glass pipe will be presented to-morrow night to the homeliest man in the room.

The Dolphin Assembly. Twenty-five couples took part in the second assembly of the Dolphin crew in Philina Hall, last evening. Prof. Douse conducted the music for dancing, and the managers of the affair provided light refreshments for the dancers.

Real Estate Transfers. George M. Carson and wife of Venice, to Mary McCarthy of Uster, Bradford Co., Pa., one of the heirs-at-law of Flora S. Carson, dec'd., one-half right title &c. to land in Venice; consideration $1.

The Supervisors.

The Board of Supervisors reconvened at 10 A. M. to-day, with Messrs. Clark, Howland and Turner absent. Mr. Turner subsequently appeared. Mr. Chase, from the committee on rules and regulations, recommended the adoption of the rules which governed the Board in the 1883 session. Adopted, with slight changes. The time fixed for the beginning of the morning sessions is 9:30 o'clock.

The chairman then announced the standing committee as follows: Equalization—Robinson, C. White, W. A. White, Hamilton, Thomas, Russ, Hudson, Ferris, McNeil. Miscellaneous—Laney, Waldron, Wheeler, McMillan, Osborne. Sheriff and Coroners—Clark, Rumsey, Atwater, Turner. Law and Legislation—Turner, J. V. White, Howland, McNeil, Coburn. Poor and Superintendents—Bruce, Burgess, Howland, Mourin, Corwith. Justices and Constables—Atwater, Demmon, Corcoran, Bruce, W. A. White. Treasurer's Accounts—Howland, McGarr, Hallock.

Charitable Institutions—Wheeler, Robinson, McGarr, Chase, C. M. White. Railroad Reports—McMillan, Hudson, Mourin. County Buildings—Webster, Halinek, Hamilton. Overseer's Returns—Osborne, Demmon, Corcoran. Printing—C. V. White, Turner, Laney, Military—Clark, Webster, Hoyt.

Communication from Comptroller Chase was received, stating that the Board of Equalization had used the aggregate valuation of property in Cayuga county at the sum of $27,768,692, upon which amount a state tax of $71,304.36 must be levied for the current fiscal year, being 2.54 mills on the dollar, for these purposes. For schools, 1.05-1.0000 mills. For general purposes 95-100 mills. For canals 37-100 mills. Total 2.575-1000 mills.

Mr. Corwith asked to be informed as to what the charge of the Supervisors for meeting with the State Assessors were to be made against the towns of the county at large. This led to an extended discussion in which Messrs. J. V. White, Corwith, Chase, Hamilton, Laney, Robinson and Turner, participated, some holding that it was not rightly a charge upon the county because the board did not meet to transact business for the county but to confer with the State Assessors, and others arguing that the work of its State Assessors benefited the county as a whole and not the towns individually and consequently the day's work of the Supervisors should be charged to the county. Most of the speakers favored the latter idea. No action was taken, however, but the matter promises to come up again, at the proper time, and cause a lively debate.

Mr. Roland Reed in his new play "Cheek," has made quite a hit here. Evening after evening this popular theatre is crowded almost to overflowing by our theatre goers, who receive the comedies with thunderous applause. The play is a rare comedy, filled with original sayings and comical situations and a very interesting plot, the scenery is magnificent and realistic and worthy of special praise. Of Mr. Reed too much cannot be said—he is an actor of the first rank and deserves great praise for his excellent performance of the character which he assumes. The part is an extremely funny one and affords Mr. Reed a good chance to indulge in his comical parts. His singing also calls for loud applause. His company is a talented one and makes a splendid support for their leader.—Gossip South, New Orleans.

A Workman Drops Dead. Yesterday afternoon, while engaged in fixing in a planer at the sash factory on Wood street, George W. Galpin, one of the carpenters employed, was taken suddenly ill and dropped dead. The deceased was 49 years of age and leaves a wife and one child. He had been under medical treatment, it seems, for a complaint of the heart but appeared to be in his usual health at the time of his seizure, and remarked shortly before his death to some of his fellow workmen that he felt that he had never felt better in his life. Coroner Frye was notified but after referring to the place and seeing the remains, deemed that an inquest, was unnecessary.

Change of Schedule. On and after Sunday next there will be the following changes in the Southern Central schedule. Train No. 15, which has hitherto left for the south at 5:55 P. M., will leave at 6:15 P. M. The train which now leaves southward at 7:45 A. M. will leave at 7:55 A. M. All other trains going south will remain unchanged. The train which now leaves northward at 4:55 P. M. will leave at 5:15 P. M. and will be a first class passenger train instead of the mixed train at present. It will make connection at Sterling Junction with the R. W. & O. eastward train, a through train which makes connection from Philadelphia to Utzdenburgh, reaching Oswego at 8:30 P. M.

Prison Deaths. James Smith, bartender, twenty years old, robbery thief, five years; Elmer Smith, clerk aged twenty-two, robbery thief, six years. Such were the Erie trials which took place at the county jail this morning, and such their crimes and sentences. Michael Fitzpatrick, whose elopement with an attendant from the state asylum made a brief sensation a short time ago, has become sane and was transferred to the prison yesterday.

One discharge this morning left the striped population at 772. Geneva Don't Want It. One of two Geneseevans who have recently witnessed the street parade of the Salvation Army in Auburn say that Geneva doesn't want anything of the kind. Bass drums and cymbals are the prominent features of the Auburn parades.—Genesee Courier.

A New Roll of Honor. Names of pupils in the seventh, second and sixth second grades of Genesee street school, who stand highest in their studies for the past two months: William Kosters, Michael Conboy, Fred Harris, Emily Walker, Miss Campbell, Katie Hall, Will Heeney, Willie Aiken.

The Order of the Iron Hall sociable at Seward Post rooms, Friday evening, November 14.

West Shore Robbery.

This morning's Syracuse Standard says: "Special Agent Adams of the West Shore was in Auburn on Monday investigating the robbery of B. C. Reed, the Grand Trunk and West Shore agent in that city, whose office is in a building in which are another tenants. On Saturday night Mr. Reed placed $481.10, West Shore receipts, in an envelope addressed to F. E. Worcester, treasurer, and placed the package under a letter-press, to be straightened out before expressing it. At 11 o'clock that night he was called out of bed at the door of the room to supply an express ticket. At that time he found the office all right. In the morning tickets were found scattered over the floor, and a pane of glass in the rear window was broken. Before disturbing anything, Mr. Reed called in Chief of Police Crobie to view the situation. The robbers had left it with the package of money and West Shore issues as follows: Six of form No. 218, from Syracuse west; and four each of form Nos. 224 and 403, and five of form No. 413, all from Weedsport west. The tickets sold at that office are Wednesday and Saturday tickets, as the customer may choose, his passage to either place, over the Southern Central to Weedsport or on the Central to Syracuse, as circumstances may best convenience the buyer, being paid by the West Shore and Grand Trunk roads. Mr. Adams said yesterday that the report of the robbery as it appeared in the Auburnian was unjust towards Mr. Reed, as the public were by it led to infer that the robbery was an unfortunate operation," added the agent. "He has been associated for some time with Mr. Crobie in this city, and bears a good reputation."

An Improbable Humor.

It was reported upon the street to-day that John E. Allen is to dispose of the proprietorship of the Osborne House and that A. W. White, now of Canandaigua but a former Auburnian, is to take the hotel. Mr. Allen's absence from the city prevented his being seen at once, but the report seems scarcely probable, and although Miss Host White knows how to keep a hotel in the most approved fashion it is to be hoped that Auburn is not to lose so estimable and public-spirited a citizen as Mr. Allen.

Mrs. Dundon's Retort.

Mrs. William Dundon lives on the corner of Elizabeth and Steel streets. She has placed in her parlor windows two life size portraits of Cleveland and Howland. They are beautifully decorated and attract great attention. Many of the passers by stop their teams and smile. She says they will remain there till the advertiser ceases running out its flag.

An Exhibition of Inventions.

A great display to be made next year in London of all sorts of Appliances. United Press Dispatch. NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—It is officially announced through the British consul, that an International Inventions Exhibition will be held in London in 1885. It will be under the patronage of the Queen, the presidency of the Prince of Wales and the management of an extensive council composed of eminent Englishmen. It will be opened in May, at the Royal Horticultural Gardens, and will last for six months and remain open until the end of the year. The exhibition will consist of two grand divisions, each of which will be subdivided into groups and classes. The first division will be devoted to inventions embracing all appliances, apparatus, &c. in connection with the arts and manufactures, and to music in all its branches, chiefly musical instruments invented since the beginning of the present century. Medals in gold, silver and bronze, and diplomas of honor will be awarded on the recommendation of juries. The British consul asks that an application for space be made immediately by those intending to send exhibits. Blank forms for such application, together with detailed information for the guidance of exhibitors, will be forwarded free to all persons applying to J. Pierpont Edwards, British consul in New York.

A Two Years Job.

The Commission to Promote Our South American Trade Starts on its Mission. United Press Dispatch. CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The commission appointed by President Arthur, consisting of Gen. Geo. H. Sharpe, as president, Ex-Gov. Thos. C. Reynolds, of Missouri; Judge Solon O. Thatcher, of Lawrence, Kansas, with William E. Curtis, of Chicago, secretary, arrived at the Grand Pacific this morning. The object of this commission is to visit South America and obtain information as to the best means of promoting commercial and political relations of the United States with these countries. After holding a brief session of the commission, Ex-Gov. Reynolds started at once for the city of Mexico and will be joined by the rest of the party en route. They will be present at the installation of President Diaz, which occurs Dec. 1st and will return to New Orleans Dec. 15th, when they expect to meet President Arthur and his cabinet with whom they will confer in regard to their mission. It will take about two years to complete the investigation ordered by congress.

Pat Stock.

An Association in Its Origin Being Formed in Chicago. United Press Dispatch. CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—All branches of the live stock product of the country are represented in this city during the present week. The fat stock show is the centre of attraction to many, while the breeders of Norman and Clydesdale horses and of Galloway cattle are all holding their annual sessions. A caucus of the delegates to this convention was held last night and a plan of organization was adopted. A committee of five was appointed to report to the convention to-day. The hope is expressed that there will be no clashing between the association to be formed to-day and the one to be formed at St. Louis, Nov. 17th. The two will work in harmony or will be merged. Delegates are present from Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Wyoming, Montana, Arizona, and the other cattle raising territories. The fat stock show continues to attract large crowds and the interest is unabated.

Very Secret.

United Press Dispatch. NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—There was a further meeting to-day of the committee of presidents of the trunk lines at Commissioner Fink's office, but nothing has transpired nor will anything be known until Saturday, if then.
