

COME TO STAY.
 And Auburn Extends a Glad Welcome.
 Because it stops
 Sneezing,
 Coughing,
 Hoarseness,
 Excessive sneezing,
 And tickling in the throat.
 California Catarrh Cure does it.
 Swallows the food breath.
 Cures the pain across the eyes And in the back of the head, Stays dropping into the throat, Cures scabs in the nose, Keeps the nose always clear, And absolutely cures the worst cases of chronic catarrh.
 Auburn people have found this out.
 Note what one of them says:
 Mr. A. J. Knapp, 273 Genesee st., says: "I got a bottle of California Catarrh Cure at Hamilton's drug store, principally for my wife; for she is troubled with catarrh. But I have used it quite a lot myself, and it is unquestionably an excellent remedy. You don't have to try it a long time before you can tell how it is going to work, for the relief it gives is immediate. Mrs. Knapp has been greatly benefited by using it, finding it good for headaches, sore throat, colds, and similar troubles; and it has given me great relief. We heartily endorse it."
 In the case of tickling in the throat, whether from the irritation of a cold, or superabundant secretions, gargling with California Catarrh Cure will afford relief and cure. Remember two things: Catarrh in any form is a local, not a blood disease. It can be cured by California Catarrh Cure.

SENECA COUNTY.

The Tripp Property Sold Died in South Dakota. Other Notes of Interest.
SENECA FALLS, Jan. 10.—The Tripp property in Walnut street was sold Saturday afternoon at auction, the house being purchased by James Sharp for $73. The barn was sold to Michael Walpert for $25, they being the highest bidders. According to the terms of sale as advertised by the Street and Bridge committee, the purchasers were required to pay cash down and to remove the buildings within 10 days.
 This will give free access to the street, the opening of which has been hanging fire for several years until the subject had become what the name implied, a chestnut.
 An Inquisition was held Saturday before C. A. McDonald as commissioner, and a sheriff's jury to determine the ability of Ann Mackin to look after her two affairs. The action was brought by sister Mrs. Winkle, the two being joint owners of a house and lot in Carey street which was recently sold to the Lehigh company, and it is regarding the payment of this money that the inquisition was held. The jury decided that she was incompetent to manage her affairs and application will be made to Judge Richardson for the appointment of a commissioner.
 Fred Gifford is confined to the bed by reason of an injury to his back, received while lifting a heavy casing at the Gaults' work last week.
 Miss Mary Gould, of Plainfield, N. J., is the guest of her uncle, S. S. Gould, in Cayuga street.

George D. Bachman leaves to-day for a business trip in the interest of J. S.
 Temple, of Reading, Mass.
 A dispatch from Albany to-day says:
 "State Superintendent of Public Works George W. Aldridge to-day awarded to Barton Barlow, of Seneca Falls, the contract for rebuilding culvert 94, and repairing culvert 78 in the Western division in the Erie canal, for $4,514."

WATERLOO, Jan. 10.—News reached here on Friday evening of the death of Hugh McLean at Aberdeen, South Dakota. Deceased was a former resident of this village, and was well known here. He was a brother of W. J. Mc-Lean, of the village, who received intelligence of his brother's illness on Wednesday and started at once for his bedside, but arrived too late to see him alive. The remains will not be brought here for interment.
 Hiram Goff held the ticket which drew the bicycle at Hugh's cafe last Saturday evening.
 The Waterloo Wheelmen are making preparations for a billiard tournament at their rooms this week. John Kropf and O. C. Cone have been chosen as captains.

 mond Cairns, one large bag each of pop corn balls; E. R. Carpenter, a quantity of picture story books and last, but not least, pretty articles in his line; G. W.
 Billings, biscuits; Kavanaugh & Ryan, one bushel roasted peanuts; American Express company, one dozen woolen socks; Miss Keady, of Ithaca, a box of nice things for the children.

THE FIRE BOARD.
 The annual meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners will be held tonight. The most important business to be transacted is the election of president to succeed Commissioner G. C.
 Smith and a clerk of the Board to succeed William G. Ramage.
 Commissioner Smith was elected to succeed himself as the regular Council meeting last Monday night and he will be the guest of the Board of Commissioners. E. J.
 Moore's term comes next and Commissioner Thomas Spreas' term expires next. It is the custom to elect the resulting commissioner president, and at the meeting to-night Commissioner Spreas will be elected to the place.
 There is no opposition, so far as known, to Mr. Ramage's candidacy for re-election and he will without doubt be chosen to succeed himself.

PRINCE INDICTED.
LONDON, Jan. 10.—At the Old Bailey (Central criminal court) to-day the recorder directed the grand jury to return a true bill against Richard Arthur Prince, the super who assassinated William Terriss, the actor, on December 16.

Merit
 Talks

"Merit talks" the intrinsic value of Hood's Sarsaparilla.
 Merit in medicine means the power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses actual and unequalled curative power and therefore it has true merit. When you buy Hood's Sarsaparilla, and take it according to directions, to purify your blood, or cure any of the many blood diseases, you are morally certain to receive benefit.
 The power to cure is there. You are not trying an experiment. It will make your blood pure, rich and nourishing, and thus drive out the germs of disease, strengthen the nerves and build up the whole system.
Severe Case of Dyspepsia.
 "I suffered from dyspepsia 20 years. I had a feeling as though there was a lump in my stomach. I did not dare to eat meat or warm bread, very few vegetables, for fear of the great distress food caused me. I experienced relief right after commencing to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. My appetite increased, I gained in general health and strength. I can eat almost anything now without discomfort. Although I had been an invalid for twenty years, I can truthfully say that I am better than for a long time. I never weighed so much in my life." Mrs. EMILY F. BURR, 45 Portland Street, Middleboro, Mass.

AGAINST MISS GING.

Harry Hayward's Brutal Crime Recalled by a Recent Court Decision.
 The brutal murder of Catherine Ging by Harry Hayward at Minneapolis two years ago is recalled by a court decision adverse to the sister of the murdered woman. Hayward, it will be remembered, professed to love Catherine Ging and succeeded in obtaining from her a large sum of money which she had accumulated by the successful conduct of a fashionable dressmaking establishment. One night he took her for a drive in the outskirts of Minneapolis and shot and killed her. He was hanged for the crime. The body of his victim was brought to this city, her former home, and buried.
 Catherine Ging held a policy for $5,000 in the Travelers' Accident Insurance company. Julia Ging, her twin sister, removed from Auburn to Minneapolis after the murder and sued the insurance company to recover the amount of the policy. Judge McGee has handed down a decision in the suit in which he holds that the murder of Miss Ging was not an accident and that she was not killed in defending her own life, as had been alleged. Therefore her sister cannot collect the money.

DEATH OF D. A. GOULD.
 The familiar face of Daniel Arnold Gould, who for several years has furnished the street corners with music from a small hand organ, will be seen no more, for after an illness of two weeks he died yesterday at noon. He was a soldier in the war, enlisting in Co. C, 11th N. Y. Volunteers, under Captain L. W. Husk, in August, 1862, and served as brigade blacksmith until June, 1865, and was then discharged with the regiment. He was an expert horse shuer and worked at his business after the war until he met with an affliction which resulted in the entire loss of sight, some 27 years ago. He bore up under his misfortune bravely and did what he could to make his way in the world. He is survived by one daughter, who resides in Michigan, and a son whose whereabouts are at present unknown.
 Funeral services will be held at the Bradley Memorial chapel to-morrow at 2 p. m. Burial will be in the Fowler family lot, near the remains of his sister, in Fort Hill.

The little folks love Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Pleasant to take; perfectly harmless; positive cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma.

CANANDAIGUA'S KICK.
 All this talk about Rochester and her admission to the State league has stirred up the folks in the smaller towns, who fear they may be frozen out in some way. The Canandaigua correspondent of Sporting Life remarks that each town has paid its money for its franchise, which takes with it the protection of the National Board, and certainly the National Board would not be a party to any such high handed proceedings, even if any one desired to promote such a project. "What President Farrell may or may not desire to do providing Rochester is shut out of the Eastern league and wants to get into the State league, matters not now, for President Farrell may not be president of the State league this year," says the correspondent. "There is a very great likelihood that he will not be. The towns now holding franchises in the State league will determine that at the annual meeting."

APPLICATION DENIED.
NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The application made in behalf of Charles De Neufville for a preliminary injunction which would practically have stopped the sale of $190,000,000 issue of bonds of the New York Central railroad until decision was reached in De Neufville's suit against the New York & Northern Railroad company, the New York Central Railroad company and Drexel, Morgan & Company, was to-day denied by Judge Lacombe, of the United States Circuit court.

MILITARY APPOINTMENTS.

Colonel Corbin Will Be Adjutant General—To Other Places to Fill.
NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—President Mc-Kinley will appoint three chiefs of staff departments in the army with the rank of brigadier general within the next few weeks, says the Washington correspondent of the Herald. The chiefest plum will be the last to be given—that of the adjutant general, which is to be given to Colonel H. C. Corbin, the ranking assistant adjutant general.
 Colonel Corbin has recently been transferred to duty in Washington, having for several years occupied the post of adjutant general of the Department of the East, with headquarters on Governors Island, New York. Colonel Corbin is a personal friend of the President, who in appointing him officer to be adjutant general, bestows upon him the highest military honor in his gift.
 His appointment has the approval of nearly every public man in Washington.

Colonel Corbin's appointment is made possible by the retirement of Adjutant General Samuel Brock who has held the office only since last September, having been appointed to succeed Brigadier General George D. Burges.
 The commissary general and the quartermaster general of the army will both retire within a few days of each other. Brigadier General William H. Bell, commissary general, on January 25, and Brigadier General George H. Weeks on February 3. The President will not observe any rules of seniority in making the appointments of their successors, Colonel Samuel T.
 Coaling, whom he has decided to make commissary general, ranking fifth among the officers of his corps, and Colonel Marshall I. Ludington, whom he will appoint quartermaster general, ranking ninth.

PARENTS ARE INDIGNANT.
New York Man Under Arrest for Selling Whisky Balls to School Boys.
NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The parents of some of the pupils who attend public school No. 78 at Pleasant avenue and 119th street, are highly indignant over a fact which has just been made public by the arrest of a man of the name of Goldman—that their sons have often been intoxicated while they were supposed to be attending to their studies.
 These youngsters are said to have been victims of whisky balls and it is charged that Goldman is the man who sold them.
 Goldman was held for trial to-day in the Harlem police court, and the fac-ters of the case who are alleged to have been drunk say they will prosecute him with all possible vigor.

MARTIAL LAW ABROGATED.
BRAGG, Jan. 10.—Martial law, which was proclaimed here on Decemstration which followed the disturbances in the Reichsrath, has been ab-rogated.

 tective tale that has appeared in years. "A Conflict of Evi-

MAJORESTERHAZY ON TRIAL.

Charged with Writing Letters Reflecting Upon France and the French Army.
PARIS, Jan. 10.—The trial by court martial of Major Count Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy, the retired officer of the French army, who came into prominence at the winter part of November last through the publication by the Figaro of a number of letters, which the count is alleged to have admitted writing, reflecting in strong terms upon France and the French army, was opened at 9 o'clock this morning under the presidency of General DeLaxer.
 The hall in which the trial took place was guarded by the Garde Republicaine and only holders of tickets were admitted.
 Among those who filled the hall were Mme. Dreyfus, wife of Alfred Dreyfus, the former captain of French artillery, now undergoing imprisonment for life after having been convicted of selling important French military plans to Germany; a foreign power, with which said Esterhazy is said to have been connected, the brothers of Mme. Dreyfus, Senator Trarieux, the former minister of justice who last week wrote a letter asking for the postponement of the court martial on the ground that to try the case in its present state only means asking the court to condemn the guilt of Dreyfus, and many officers and deputies.

Count Esterhazy appeared in uniform and escorted by Republic Guards, the clerk of the court said the court martial was held in order to end the contradictory rumors which had been spread by the excited public and thereupon, Maitre Laborie, counsel for Mme. Dreyfus, asked permission to take part in the arguments. Counsel for the government opposed the application, declaring the court would not re-open the case of Alfred Dreyfus who, he added, had been justly and legally condemned. The government's counsel also opposed the application of counsel for Maitre Dreyfus, brother of the prisoner of Devil's Island, to appear during the proceedings. The court rejected both applications, and the taking of testimony commenced.

Mrs. James J. Cashen herewith tenders her heartfelt thanks to her immediate neighbors and all others who so kindly rendered services and manifested their sympathy during the illness
