ANOTHER GROUP STARTS ROUND AT EDGEWATER

Past Fortnight Has Demonstrated Health-Giving Value of Camp Life.

Two weeks have passed at Edgewater Girl Scout Camp and this morning an almost entirely new group started in on the weekly round of jolly camp life. Eighteen Scouts went to camp and with the seven who were left over from last week, the camp will be filled. Miss Elizabeth Huntsman, captain of the Bluebird Troop of Calvary Church, will be a counsellor.

Despite the cold and rainy weather of the past two weeks which caused one or two to develop slight colds, there have been many enjoyable things happening. The first part of the week was devoted to becoming acquainted with newcomers and adjusting to camp routine. The patrol work began with zest.

Tuesday evening's camp fire circle displayed charades of all sorts. Each patrol outdid the one performing before it and they all outdid the "Officer's Patrol." Wednesday a notice was posted which invited the whole camp to an entertainment that evening by the Pine Patrol of which Charlotte Underwood is leader. A program of songs, recitations, and a short skit, entitled The Doll Shop, was presented, and lemonade was served. This followed a strenuous day for many of the scouts had made a trip to the city on Wednesday afternoon to take part in the pageant at the Seminary Summer School. The party was refreshing.

On Sunday morning the usual scouts own service was conducted by Miss Catherine M. Paterson, camp director. Miss Lola G. Smith of Geneva, a counsellor for the week, read A Girl's Beatitudes for Every Day and the message was a useful one. The story for the morning was Peter a Man of the World.

Open court of honor was held in the afternoon and the girls who received the purple Edgewater "E" were Doris McCully, Adeline Hager, Dorothy Seccomb, Kirby Jenkins, Thelma Ward and Janet Dunning, who received single letters last year, were given the shadow letters, purple on a gold background. Kirby Jenkins was leader and Janet Dunning corporal of the winning patrol. The total number of points to their credit was 53 1-2.

Miss Helen D. Dates, who has charge of the culinary department, has been preparing the best sort of meals and plates are filled a second time for nearly every girl. Sunday meals are a little more elaborate than every day. The dinner consisted of roast beef, potatoes and gravy, Yorkshire pudding and green corn, tomato and lettuce salad with mayonnaise, hot sauce and cookies.

Other days there is no meat with the exception of once during the week, fresh vegetables from the camp garden are the chief food. Plenty of fresh milk is used every day as a cow belongs to the camp. Butter and fresh eggs are purchased from a farm near by. The question is often asked, Where do you get your supplies and how?

Once or twice a week the freight car brings an order of groceries and fresh fruit. On the whole the meals are not only wholesome and appetizing but they are remarkably varied, considering the supplies and the revenue upon which the expense must be figured.

On Thursday Mrs. Charles Clifford of the Red Cross spent the day in camp and gave demonstrations of the work required to win a merit badge for home nursing. The girls were quick to learn and Mrs. Clifford found a ready response among her pupils. Ethel Louise Hager, the camp baby, really a regular scout, but a tiny one, was a very patient young patient for the demonstrations.

Thursday evening the Happy Helpers' Patrol gave an entertainment which consisted of some recitations and a moving picture, The Coquette. Kirby Jenkins was leader of this patrol. A pan of butterscotch candy made by this group was received with shouts.

Visiting day brought more visitors than usual. During the day there were over 40 guests who were interested to see that the girls were well and happy. In the afternoon the girls gave a demonstration of their Red Cross work. A "patient" was put to bed and then taken care of in an hour and a half as she should be each day of illness. Several of the girls took part demonstrating bed-making both with and without patient. Others served the meals, one took pulse and another, respiration.

In the evening a song contest was held and the original song presented by the Happy Helpers to the tune of Jingle Bells was voted the best and received five points on the roll.

Saturday found the girls enjoying themselves as they chose, some working, others reading or writing. A brief summary of the work in scouting shows that the following tests were given: First class in swimming, map making, judging heights, weights, distances and compass; second, health, first aid, fire making, table setting and bed making.

The last evening of the week is always a time of much excitement. It is known as "stunt night" and each patrol puts on a stunt. The stunt of the Happy Helpers' Patrol was voted the best and five points were given the patrol.

ROAD WORK DISCUSSED BY SUPERS

QUARTERLY SESSION IS OPENED WITH REPORTS ON HIGHWAY MATTERS.

Consideration and debate over highway matters took up the bulk of the time at today's session of the Board of Supervisors assembled for regular quarterly audit of claims and other county matters which have developed since the May and subsequent special sessions.

The meeting was slow in getting under way, as the members were busy preparing claims for recent regular and special sessions aggregating $66 each with additional mileage for the country members.

Right at the start of the meeting Clerk Tabor read a communication from Third Deputy Highway Commissioner William B. Reed recommending that a delegation from the Cayuga Board attend the semi-annual conference of county superintendents of highways and other highway officials which opens at Jamestown on Wednesday and continues through Thursday.

The Officials Highway Committee with County Superintendent Dayton was directed to attend, expenses paid on resolution of Supervisor Willett of Leyard, unanimously adopted.

Rains Hamper Work.

Chairman Wright of the Officials Highway Committee presented a brief review of highway work expenditures so far this season in which he stated that the heavy rains and storms of the season had retarded the work on roads and practically nullified the work of the Spring on the earth roads.

He stated that all towns in the county were at work on the county system schedule except Genoa where delay in start was due to the necessity of constructing bridges washed out by the big deluge of several weeks ago.

Statistics on the financial line showed a total of $95,290.45 available this year for construction work with expenses to date of $21,868.38, leaving a balance on hand of $73,422.07 for the balance of the season.

For maintenance of highway there was available a total of $45,426.57 with expenditures to date of $28,663.04, leaving a balance on hand for the rest of the season of $16,763.53. The expenditures were: The purchase of the county storehouse, $8,500; for trucks expenses, $1,000 and for oil, repairs and machinery, $16,163.04.

Lands Work of Trucks.

Chairman Wright pointed out that the trucks had more than paid their way and materially reduced the cost of road work. He said that the county orders had made applications of 173,546 gallons so far. The total cost of the others in operations to date was given as $3,294.81 while the earnings of the trucks had been $12,281.50. The estimated value of all machinery now owned by the county for highway use was estimated at $50,000.

A report was submitted by Chairman Wright showing that the maintenance work for the season is about three-quarters completed and all construction work authorized for the season will be completed.

Supervisor Quill called attention to the necessity of repairing the East Genesee Street road in Sennett and Supervisors Riley came back with the assertion that money spent in repairs would be thrown away. Mr. Riley made it plain that the road needed a three inch top course and that sprinkling of oil and chips for repairs was a useless waste of money. He pointed out that the road was ruined by heavy truck traffic and the Town of Sennett should not be compelled to shoulder all the cost of placing the highway in condition.

Supervisor Dean interpolated a new element in the discussion by urging that the highway committee take steps to investigate construction of concrete highways that will last. He said he would rather have less mileage and permanent roads than a large number of miles of inferior type of roads.

Favor Link in Road.

Supervisor Willetta called up his resolution from the last annual session that the Board of Supervisors urge the construction of the road between Aurora and Union Springs as a federal aid highway. Adopted. Supervisor Messereau followed up with a resolution that the road be constructed in 1923 as same is a connecting link between two finished stretches of state road. Adopted.

Supervisor Bloomfield's resolution called attention to the fact that the quota of Cato for this year had been completed with $1,500 still remaining in the town highway fund. He recommended the designation of the road northeast from the Conquest town line to Cato as a road to be next started in Cato. Referred to Highway Committee.

A communication was received from the Cayuga County Farm Bureau stating that a further appropriation of $500 would be needed to meet the expenses of the bureau for the balance of the year. It having been understood at the last annual meeting of the supervisors that, if the $3,000 appropriation voted was not enough, application for more funds could be made for the balance of the year. The additional $500 was referred to the Agriculture Committee.

Time for Baby Odell to Leave Abode in Prison

Mildred Naomi Odell, two-year old daughter of Pearl Beaver Odell now serving a sentence of from 20 years to life in the Women's Prison, should have been taken from her mother last Saturday in accordance with strict conformity to the law in such cases, but Warden Jennings stated today that he had discretion in the matter and if necessary a delay of several months was permissible.

Warden Jennings would only state that the baby had not as yet been removed, but he firmly declared that the date of removal would not be announced at any time nor the relatives to whom the baby girl is given.

The child Mildred was born at Mercy Hospital two years ago last Saturday and in accordance with the law then in force the custody of the child was left with the mother in prison for two years. This law has since been changed so that no child of a mother serving time in a penal institution in this state is permitted to be born in prison.

The mother must be removed to an outside hospital during confinement and the child taken away from her before the mother is returned to prison.

Dr. Frank L. Heacox, superintendent of the Women's Prison, takes the stand that the intent of the law must be carried out and Warden Jennings, his superior officer, stated today that he would uphold him in it. Doctor Heacox holds that the new law was enacted in order to give the innocent baby a fair chance in the race of life, unhandicapped by the stigma of prison association.

"If the disposition of the child is made known and the newspapers follow that child with objectionable publicity all through its career, the intent of the law is defeated," declared Doctor Heacox. "I believe that it is a grave injustice to the child and, as far as I am concerned, no publicity to the comings and goings of children born to mothers serving sentences in penal institutions will be given out."

ST. MARY'S WILL CELEBRATE ITS 54TH BIRTHDAY

Observance Tomorrow Will Round Out Over Half Century of Achievement.

The business activity of this city between the years of 1866 and 1868 held forth great opportunities for men with the result that the population increased.

The rapid growth of Catholicism necessitated the formation of another parish and accordingly Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid paid this city a visit on August 13, 1868, just 54 years ago tomorrow and organized St. Mary's parish.

The services of the new parish were held at the home of the pastor of the church, at 34 State Street. The congregation, greatly encouraged with the wholehearted work of the pastor, Rev. Thomas Meagher, secured property and erected a neat wooden church which accommodated the parish for a few years only.

Happy indeed was the flock on the 29th of April, 1877, when they assembled to witness the grand and beautiful ceremony of the consecration of the church by Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid. In 1871 a new stone structure was decided upon and the present beautiful edifice was erected at the corner of Clark and Green Streets.

The work of the new church was begun at once and as hard as any of the workmen, worked Rev. Myles J. Loughlin who came as pastor of the parish in 1889. For over six years he enacted the part of superintendent, architect, builder and pastor and scarcely a day during this period ever saw him absent from his duties.

The church is built entirely of gray limestone. Its style is a modification of Gothic architecture, in the form of a Latin Cross, with nave, side aisles, transepts and apse.

The aim of the parish was to clear the debt of the new building by the 50th anniversary of its dedication which is also tomorrow, but the debt was cleared about six months ago.

Tomorrow at 9:30 o'clock will be held at the church a solemn high mass and Wednesday at the Park on Oswego Lake will be held a large outing and picnic by the parish to be called an anniversary picnic.

200 ENJOY FINE TENNIS TOURNEY

Auburnians and visitors to the city, numbering upwards of 200 gathered as spectators at the tennis tournament staged at Pomeroy Park, Saturday afternoon, under the auspices of the Auburn Tennis Club. The affair proved a pleasing social event as well as an example of some clever tennis. At the close of the matches, refreshments were served by a committee of ladies.

In the first of the doubles, only one set was played, Warren Brinkerhoff, Jr. and Mrs. Mary Seymour winning from Dr. and Mrs. Sherman Thordyke of Boston by a score of 6-3.

The second doubles consisted of a single set, also, Sam Hopkins Adams and Mrs. Allen Wyman taking the game from F. M. Everett and Mrs. Charles D. Osborne, 6-3.

Mr. Brinkerhoff and Mrs. Seymour then played Sam Adams and Mrs. Wyman and were defeated 6-2, 6-3.

In the consolation singles, Brinkerhoff defeated Howard Baumline, 6-4, 6-3.

The "finals" in which Roscoe Blampied and H. Pfeiffer were matched, came to a sad ending, when Mr. Pfeiffer was informed by a messenger that his baby girl was dying at the family home in School Street.

At that time the men were on their fourth game, Blampied having taken the first 6-4, Pfeiffer the second, 6-4, and Blampied the third, 6-3.
