George's Case Put Over.

CATSKILL, N. Y., April 20.—The decisive stand taken by District Attorney Tallmadge, with the case of Rev. H. W. George, brought that gentleman into court Saturday, accompanied by his counsel, Mr. Fiero. The defense insisted they were not ready for trial at that time, and after reviewing the situation, Judge Sanderson decided to put the trial over until the October session, continuing the bail of $7,000. The court was then adjourned sine die.

Typhus Fever on Board.

Labourogne had 942 passengers aboard. She will be detained at quarantine for at least ten days. This is the fourth ship having contagious diseases on board that has come into port in the last five days.

Many New Faces.

Many new faces are applying at our store daily for our prices on Teas, Coffee and Spices, and we can truthfully say the call for our goods of late has been beyond our anticipation, showing a large gain over last year at this season. People are being convinced that the place to get a good article at a reasonable price is where the firm's advantages will permit them to offer first class articles. Our advantages for meeting the demands of the people cannot be questioned as being far superior to any competition in Auburn. Remember, we are the only firm in the city who roast their own Coffees and whose buyer is continuously in the market.
Respectfully,

His Royal Highness Uneasy.

PORTSMOUTH, April 20.—All is quiet today at Fort Grange, Gosport. The outbreak of the artillery company yesterday was one of those isolated but not uncommon acts of insubordination by which Tommy Atkins shows that his independence as an Englishman has not been eradicated by military discipline. In this instance, however, there were evidences of sympathy on the part of the rest of the garrison which took the unusual form of a refusal to assist in quelling the riot. This gives His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught Lt. Gen. Commanding the Southern district, no little uneasiness. He has ordered a vigorous investigation to discover if there are any traces of an attempt at a general mutiny.

EXCISE COMMISSIONER KOSTERS.

Mayor Wadsworth Names James C. Stout's Successor.

Mayor Wadsworth to-day filed the following appointment of excise commissioner to succeed James C. Stout:

Whereas, James C. Stout, a commissioner of excise, duly appointed as commissioner of excise in and for the city of Auburn, has tendered his resignation in writing, which has been duly accepted by the undersigned;
Now therefore in pursuance of the statutes in such case made and provided I do hereby appoint C. B. Kosters, residing at No. 19 Hamilton avenue in the city of Auburn, N. Y., to be a Commissioner of Excise in and for the city of Auburn, N. Y., to fill such vacancy for the term of three years from May 1st, 1891, caused by the resignation of James C. Stout, the said C. B. Kosters being duly qualified to be appointed and hold such office.
DAVID WADSWORTH, Jr.,
Mayor.
AUBURN, N. Y., April 20, 1891.

The correspondence between the mayor and Mr. Stout was as follows:

MR. STOUT'S RESIGNATION.

Hon. David Wadsworth, Jr., Mayor:
DEAR SIR—Since qualifying as Excise Commission under your appointment to that office I find various difficulties in the way of a proper discharge of its duties. As I have personally explained to you, contract work of considerable importance and propositions in other cities has been awarded me, which will necessitate my absence from Auburn, on many occasions when excise matters would demand my presence here, and a regard for the successful administration of the Excise Department therefore compels me to ask you to accept my resignation, and to appoint another citizen in my place. I thank you sincerely for the honor and confidence implied in your appointment and regret that purely business reasons compel this resignation.
Very Respectfully Yours.
JAMES C. STOUT.

THE MAYOR'S REPLY.

MR. JAMES C. STOUT,
Dear Sir: Your favor of the 15th instant duly at hand. In reply I would say that while I reluctantly release you from your obligations as Excise Commissioner, believing as I do that the Board as appointed would have been for the best interests of a proper discharge of the duties pertaining to excise matters, still I do not feel that your business interests, which to you are paramount over all others, should be allowed to suffer, as they are of far greater importance to you than the discharge of the affairs connected with the office to which you were appointed by me; and for this reason alone your resignation is accepted as Excise Commissioner.
Very respectfully,
DAVID WADSWORTH, Jr.,
Mayor.

A DISLOCATED SHOULDER.

Sebastian Greenway Thrown from his Wagon in the Central Yard.

Sebastian Greenway, a farmer of Skaneateles, met with a serious accident about 2:15 this afternoon while trying to drive his team over the New York Central track between Van Anden and Chapel streets. He drove up the track to some freight cars which were filled with phosphate, loaded his wagon with the fertilizer, and started to return, driving back over the track. When near the switch the other side of the water house the seat slipped from the wagon, throwing Greenway to the ground. The horses started up the track toward the depot. They were stopped and driven to Bell's livery stables in Garden street. Greenway fell on the track badly bruising his face and cutting two gashes in his head.
Dr. Parker was sent for and had Greenway removed to the hospital where it was found that his left shoulder was dislocated and several bruises were found on his body. He apparently did not realize his perilous position. A young man who was with Greenway at the time of the accident, left him to the mercy of strangers and could not be found.
