PERSONALS.

George F. DeVenney, who has spent the past winter in Washington as a member of the corps at work in arranging the Payne tariff schedules, returned to Auburn today.

Claude Brigham of Auburn has returned home after a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Jenks of Maxwell place.—Elmira Star-Gazette.

A farewell party was given in honor of Miss Helen Waters at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clarence Francis, in Seymour street Wednesday evening. Those present were: The Misses Helen Waters, Agnes Cullen, May Delahant, May Seale, Mary Lyons, Helen Conkling, Lillian Hattie, Etta Mae Ferris, Sarah Burke, Gertrude Hubert, Marie Mulqueen, Florence Flackney and the Messrs. Edward Gaylor, Harry Mott, Percy Hillebrand, William Smith, Roy Shuter, William Marks, Charles Becker, Fred Donovan, Raymond Bell, John Madden, Earl Consoimon, Leo Donahue and Ernest Benn. The evening was spent in games and music and luncheon was served.

LEW SHAW IN TOWN.

Entertained Members of City Club With Skill With the Cue.

Lew Shaw, the well known billiard expert, who has amazed Auburnians in the past with his wonderful exhibitions, gave another interesting demonstration of his skill at the City club last night where before more than a hundred members he gave a new set of stunts with the ivory, including foats at both pool and billiards. Mr. Shaw first played a 200-point game of 13-inch ball line billiards with the best player in the club, the latter's modesty causing him to withhold his name from publication. Mr. Shaw ran the game out in 10 innings with one high run of 93. It was the best ball line exhibition with fancy shots ever given in Auburn.

The expert will remain in town during next week giving exhibitions at the different clubs. On Monday evening he will be at the Elk's club rooms from 9 until 11:30. He presents some of his great shots at all of his exhibitions and is the originator of the 14 ball shot, this being only one of over a hundred that he has invented. He has played through out the country on exhibition tours with such experts as Jake Schaefer and Frank Ives.

Another Recital by Beebe.

J. C. Beebe, the organist of the First Presbyterian church, will give another of his popular organ recitals at the church on Monday at 8 p. m. The following is the programme: Sonata No. 1 in D minor, Gulliant Largo-Allegro Pastoral. First Song (Möller) Wagner Lamentation Gulliant. Solo—O Thou Artistic (St. Peter) M. Mac Hall. M. Mac Hall. Andante Cantabile. Dethier Two Orchestral Sketches. Bach Dighe in a major. Bach (a) Shadow by Sumner. Bond (b) Rows by Sumner. Frosken Newton M. Mac Hall. Pastoral. Lonnare Gavotte. Miss Allie Maria. Admission will be free, by ticket, which can be obtained at any of the church services tomorrow and from members of the congregation. In connection with the recital an offering will be taken toward the organ fund.

Y. F. B. A. Met.

The Young Ladies Benevolent Association held its monthly meeting in the parlors of the Woman's Union this morning, transacting its usual routine business.

Over to June Term.

An order granted by Justice Sutherland placing the action brought by Eunice K. Stone against Benjamin S. Coates over to the Equity term of Supreme court which convenes in this city on June 7 next was filed in the county clerk's office this morning.

Didn't Get a Canine.

Inspector Jordan and Deputy Sheriff Johnston had poor success in rounding up stray dogs in the towns north of the city yesterday. They did not capture one unmuzzled canine. As they were coming along to the Court house in the afternoon they did pick up a small terrier in the street. It was placed in the jail barn and then taken to the humane shelter. The officers are taking a day off today on account of the rain.

Realty Dealers Will Meet.

The real estate men of Auburn, following the practice of real estate men in Syracuse, Rochester and elsewhere, will soon hold a meeting in this city to form a local organization the purpose of which is to elevate and greater dignity their profession and to co-operate in boosting the city and surrounding territory. An out-of-town speaker will probably address the meeting.

THE CAFE CHANTANT

Novel Entertainment for Woman's Union Big Success.

HUNDREDS WERE TURNED AWAY

Novel and Very Pleasing Programme of Dances Was Much Enjoyed.

The notion that every form of entertainment, professional and amateur, has been exhausted in Auburn and that the surfeit of plays and entertainments of the past winter furnished more amusement than the city could support received a pleasant jolt last night at Osborne hall where the Woman's Educational and Industrial Union introduced Auburnians to the Cafe Chantant—a delightful and exalted form of, well perhaps not Maxims or Rector's, but something like it for there were tables and chairs around and waiters, and refreshments and girls dancing on the stage. The idea was imported from Springfield, Mass., so that those whose fears were aroused by the glove comparison may set their fears at naught. The entertainment proved to be one of the successes of the season may be appreciated in the more statement that hundreds were turned away, one observer estimating that as many as five hundred came only to be turned away.

Had the demand for tables been approximated beforehand the management would certainly have provided for a second performance. It was at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon that the last seat at the last table was snapped up, and when the doors opened at 7:30 last evening the main hall and the banquet hall upstairs looking out on the balcony began to fill with the attentive ushers and young ladies' waiters were busy. Shortly after 8 o'clock the doors were closed, every table having been filled and every additional space for a table or single chairs outside of tables and exits being filled. The entertainment began at 8:20 when Mrs. D. M. Osborne, president of the Woman's Union, stated at the success that was promised in the big audience and attractive programme, made a brief speech in which she thanked the audience for its generous response to the efforts of the committee in charge, and also expressed gratitude to the Entertainment committee of the Union. In conclusion she explained the origin of the Cafe Chantant idea and proudly claimed responsibility for importing it here from Springfield. A splendid programme of dances, both solo and chorus, followed, and the cream of local talent, which includes some remarkably clever dancers, was seen and enjoyed to the highest degree.

The list produced persons skilled in all forms of the terpsichorean art and many forms of dancing from the heavy rhythmic and noisy o-g to the butterfly grace of the butterfly dance were seen. Among the many features was the appearance of Miss Emma Grace Wright of this city, who is at present in charge of dancing in a number of the public schools of Boston. She received a rousing reception and was compelled to respond to a double encore in her final number of the programme. The George W. Boyds in Spanish dance proved to be a surprising treat and shared honors with Miss Wright and Miss Helen Fay, the latter repeating the butterfly dance in which who achieved the hit of the recent production of Matsuri. Mrs. Marie H. Lane made the comedy hit of the evening in her Washerwoman's dance. The addition of F. W. Weedon of Syracuse in humorous songs and an imitation of Harry Lauder brought the programme to full measure of entertainment. The host and hostesses were far better than adequate and contributed heavily to the big success of the performance. The programme:

- 1. Maid of the Mist, Dance by Misses Catherine Edred, Jane Cooke and Margaret Edred.
2. Valerius, Dance by Miss Emma Grace Wright.
3. Motor March, Dance by Miss Helen Fay.
4. Washerwoman's Dance, by Mrs. Marie H. Lane.
5. Butterfly, Song by Mr. F. W. Weedon of Syracuse.
6. Toba, Dance by Miss Pauline Titus.
7. Komora, Spanish song by the Misses Frances Stenger, Laura Rich, Helva Fay, Jean Nye, Emma McCabe and Mrs. Gerald D. Woodard.
8. Song and Dance Sketch, by James E. Dehan and Eugene Voland.
9. Spanish Dance, music from Torrance, by Mrs. George W. Boyds.
10. La Zalgara, dance by Miss Jean Nye and Mrs. Gerald Woodard.
11. Imitation, in costume, of Harry Lauder, by F. W. Weedon of Syracuse.
12. American Beauty, dance by Miss Helen Fay and Mrs. George W. Boyds.
13. The Wild Bird, dance by Miss Edred.
14. Imitation of Harry Lauder, by the Misses Frances Stenger, Emma McCabe and Laura Rich.
15. Butterfly, Song, by Miss Helen Fay.
16. My Little Caprice, ensemble dance, by Misses Frances Stenger, Laura Rich, Helen Fay, Jean Nye, Emma McCabe and Mrs. Gerald Woodard.

The accompanists were Miss Emma McCabe, Miss Lena Mott, Miss Lillian Gruner and Mrs. F. W. Weedon. There were three intermissions during the performance. The dancers were rewarded by a profus collection of bouquets that were passed over the footlights amid great applause at intervals during the evening. One of the features of the evening was the fact that the sale of refreshments was so great that long before the performance was concluded the supply of sandwiches, esko, ice cream, etc., became exhausted and although reinforcements came they were not sufficient to withstand the attack and everything was sold out. The Cafe Chantant was a big financial and social success. It is estimated that there were 300 people present, standing room being at a premium. Offers ranging from $1.50 to $3 for standing room were frequently made. In view of the huge success of last night the committee is inclined to favorably consider the request for another performance.

DOCTOR STEWART'S HERESY

Characteristically Candid in Advice to Christian Endeavorers.

A rally of Præbyterian Christian Endeavorers, was held last night in the Central Præbyterian church. As the young people entered the upper room each was tagged with his or her name and the name of a Bible celebrity. At the conclusion of the services a list of Biblical questions were handed around and a contest in Hebrew history ensued. During the course of the services two solos were sung, one by Abram L. Hombergway, the other by Miss Alice Crawford. George Gordon of the seminary conducted the rally and the address of the evening was made by Rev. George B. Stewart, president of the seminary, who spoke on Christian Endeavor Ideals.

He declared that one of the ideals toward which Christian Endeavor Societies should constantly work is that of keeping the membership among young people. "It should be your ideal not only to take in new members, but to get rid of the old ones. That is awful heresy, I know. But your societies will die if they are filled up with charter members. Get rid of the old girls and the old boys. Whenever occasion demands it have a house-cleaning, graduation exercises, and if you can't get rid of your old members in any other way, give them diplomas." The rally was well attended and the decorations were quite appropriate. American flags and Christian Endeavor Emblems were conspicuously displayed along the walls.

FOR PROBATION OFFICER.

Mothers' Club of First Præbyterian Church Endorses Plan.

The Mothers' club of the First Præbyterian church met yesterday afternoon in the chapter house and endorsed the movement for a paid probation officer. A communication was received from the Parent-Teachers' Association, requesting that the club of the First Præbyterian church endorse the probation system, which it did by a unanimous vote. The secretary was instructed to notify the association of the action.

Mrs. William H. Hubbard and Mrs. H. C. Manro were appointed a nominating committee by the president, Mrs. William T. Howard. An interesting address was made by Mrs. Harry Reed on Sunday afternoon in the home. She told of the many different ways by which the instruction of religious subjects can be made interesting to the child and was followed by Mrs. E. F. Metcalf who sang several pretty little children's songs. Miss Minnie Gardner and Miss Porter opened the meeting with a piano duet.

CHARLES M. PRATT.

Death This Morning of Another Well Known Civil War Veteran.

Charles M. Pratt of No. 8 Myrtle avenue died at his home this morning at 9:50 o'clock after a long illness. Mr. Pratt has resided in Auburn for the past 11 years, and was born in the town of Hadley, Oakland county, Mich., August 26, 1840. He served four years in the war with the First Michigan Cavalry and was a member of Seward-Crocker Post No. 45 of this city. The family have been greatly afflicted, this being the fourth death in less than six years. The first was a daughter, Bessie M., who died September 23, 1903; next a daughter, Flossie May Pratt, September 26, 1904, and a son, Morris M., March 23, 1908.

Besides the wife, four children survive, two sons, Frank and Clayton Pratt of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. George Boggs of Covert and Mrs. James Hopkins of Bluff Point, N. Y., to whom will come the sympathies of a large circle of friends in their bereavement. The funeral services will be held at the house Monday afternoon next at 2:30 o'clock and the burial will be made in the family lot in Fort Hill.

MAY TERM MONDAY

Big Calendar of Which Many Are Negligence Actions.

GRAND JURY WILL BE BUSY

District Attorney Burritt Has Many Cases to Present, Including That of Kern.

The May Trial and Special term of Supreme court will convene at the Court house Monday morning with Justice Nathaniel Foote of Rochester presiding. There are 57 cases on the calendar of which over one-third are negligence actions against different public and private corporations.

The grand jury will also consider a large number of cases next week. Among those which will be presented by District Attorney Burritt are those of Jacob Kern, in custody charged with the shooting of Supervisor Charles Higgins on the morning of May 27, 1908, while on his way home in the village of Montezuma; the People against Mito Keogh charged with attempted rape in the first degree, arrested recently for investigating the young daughter of P. T. Quigley into a hallway in Genesee street; the People against Wynard Van Hoesen for violation of the Liquor Tax law in Martville; the People against Edward Powers on the charge of robbery by being the young man arrested recently for grabbing a purse from the hands of Miss Parsons in Lawton avenue and running away; the People against Charles Horton of Locke, charged with burglary. The district attorney has a number of other minor cases to present to the grand jury.

CLOSE OF EQUITY TERM.

Norman Case Was Decided in Favor of Defendant Son.

The April Equity term of Supreme court came to a close yesterday at the conclusion of the trial of the action brought by John Norman against Will D. Norman. The action was brought by the plaintiff to set aside a deed to property in Genoa conveyed as alleged by a fraudulent deed to the defendant, who is a son of the plaintiff. The plaintiff alleged that he came to Auburn and signed a will but which he supposed was a will but which was a deed of his property. After hearing the evidence Justice Sutherland decided in favor of the defendant and advised the parties to go home and live peaceably and amicably. Hull Greenfield was attorney for the plaintiff and Amasa J. Parker for the defendant.

In the actions brought by Nelson L. Drummond as trustee against Frank S. Smith and others Justice Sutherland directed the attorneys to submit briefs. Interlocutory decree of divorce was granted in favor of the defendant in an action brought by Anna L. Osborn against Harmon R. Osborn. The plaintiff sued for separation on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment and the defendant set up a counterclaim charging the plaintiff with improper relations with one Walter Marshall in Geneva and in the town of Magee. The custody of one child was given to the defendant. Frank M. Leary was attorney for the plaintiff and Drummond, Drummond & Drummond for the defendant.

Justice Sutherland adjourned the term until June 7, when the rest of the cases on the calendar will be disposed of. Removed to 57 State St., Osborne Block. John Gruner.

Baracas at Banquet Board. The Baraca class of Wall Street M. E. church held its annual banquet last night in the church parlors. About 80 sat down to the supper, which was served by the Dorcas Sisters. Rev. E. J. Rosengrant of the First M. E. church spoke on The Sunny Shine of Life; A. P. Hemans on The Laymen's Missionary Movement; A. D. Munday, president of the class, talked about The Men's Education; J. M. Britton, pastor of the church, made a short speech of welcome to the visitors. The toastmaster of the evening was Charles McClellan.

The reports of Secretary John Cox and Treasurer Bell were very favorable, showing the progress of the class. There has been a substantial gain in membership and finances. The conditions of the class last night was declared to be the most satisfactory since its organization. The First Baptist quartette sang a number of selections and solos were sung by Miss White and Miss Aubin, with Miss Koenig at the piano.

The committee who has charge of the successful affair was composed of Charles M. Eubody and Charles N. McClellan. Close of Kitchen Garden Class. The kitchen garden class of the Woman's Union closed last Monday. The class, although a small one, was very successful and its term of study lasted three months longer than usual. The girls are now entering in the sewing classes. All the classes have discontinued for the season with the exception of the French dressmaking, shirtwaist making and practical cooking classes.

Miss Harriet Test, the visiting nurse of the Woman's Union, reports that during the month ended yesterday she made 119 nursing calls and 33 friendly calls. Removed to 57 State St., Osborne Block. John Gruner.

JENNINGS WILL BE THERE

Meeting of Third Regiment Officers Called for Rochester.

Rochester, N. Y., May 1.—A call for all officers of the Third regiment, National Guard, to meet next Friday evening at the State armory in this city has been issued. The line officers' meeting will be presided over by Colonel William Wilson of Geneva and Major S. Case Jones of this city is to preside over the medical officers' meeting. Major William Verbeck of Syracuse, Captain E. S. Jennings of Auburn, Captain George A. Gasper of Geneva and Captain R. F. Walton of Poughkeepsie will speak on matters of interest to the regiment.

The officers cover 10 cities in Western New York and this is the first regimental session of its kind over held.

TROUT, PIKE AND PICKEREL

Season on All These Fish Opened Today—Prospects.

Today is the opening day of the pike, pickerel and lake trout season and local Waltonians will undoubtedly take advantage of the fine chances now offered on Cayuga and Oswego lakes to go after these fish. As Oswego lake has been well protected during the past two years the prospects for fair catches of trout are better than ever before and in all probability the sandbar and shallows at the foot of the lake and in the vicinity of Conklin's Point will be carefully tried out within the next few days.

At Cayuga lake the pike and pickerel will assuredly be taken in large numbers and of excellent size. The men engaged in netting carp, bullheads and ling from the lake have frequently taken fine specimens of pike and pickerel which were returned to the water unharmed and many of these will surely be taken in the lawful way in the near future. The opening of the season at Cayuga always sees a number of big fish taken, and scarcely an opening week passes without some pike weighing from 15 to 25 pounds being landed by some fortunate angler. The laws governing these above mentioned fish in local waters are:

Lake Trout: Open season from May 1 until August 31, both inclusive. Lake trout less than 15 inches in length shall not be taken or possessed. Pike and Pickerel: Open season from May 1 to the last day of February, both inclusive. Pike less than 10 inches in length shall not be taken or possessed.

Removed to 57 State St., Osborne Block. John Gruner.

Famous Scientist at Trinity.

The lecture to be given under the management of the Trinity Brotherhood at Trinity M. E. church on Tuesday evening next is sure to be of unusual interest. The subject matter of the lecture is of thrilling interest and the audience will be curious to know in view of the present newspaper discussions the lecturer's thought concerning the possibilities of communications with Mars. Coming as it does direct from his observatory to the lecture platform, Doctor Brooks brings with him all the inspiration and freshest knowledge from the star depths and imparts this to his audience in a manner which never fails to entertain, instruct and charm his hearers. And the lecturer himself is wonderful man. Living right here in New York State, our very neighbor and fellow citizen, his numerous and brilliant discoveries and observations of comets, meteors, sun spots, solar storms, planetary and other astronomical phenomena have made his name and his observatory famous throughout the globe.

CONTEST IS WARMER

Candidates in the Citizen's Contest Are Hustling.

ELEMENTS DON'T INTERFERE

With Those Who Have Entered the Race to Win—Nominations Are Still Open.

Through rain and wind, sunshine and snow the contest thrives. Nothing can cause a day's loss of interest in a race where the prizes are of such remarkable value. The clubbing offer announced this week and which will last a week longer has created an unprecedented activity among the candidates.

They are one and all delighted with this opportunity to make such rapid gains. When they saw the immense opportunities before them they were convinced that it is the best thing that ever happened and we have been gratified by the many expressions of pleasure and determination to make yet more earnest effort on the part of the ambitious contestants.

Subscriptions Count for Much.

The candidates are beginning to realize that it is the subscriptions that count for the winning of the prizes. They are learning, too, that it is better to turn in their subscriptions as they get them, since they can hold the votes at their own pleasure, and the subscriber is at once served with the paper, which is only fair to those who generously give their aid.

"A subscription in the hand is worth two in the bush any day," said one merry contestant, who is a frequent visitor. She knows that as soon as the votes are issued they are assured to her beyond possibility of loss.

New Candidates.

As some of the earlier entries drop from the ranks their places are filled by those who after mature consideration decide that this is the best chance that they will ever have of getting the maximum of reward for the minimum of effort. They have chosen their time or entrance wisely, for during the Clubbing Offer a few subscriptions will place their names in a very creditable position on the list.

Every subscription gained makes the next one come easier, and the candidates have by this time learned the best way to approach an acquaintance for a subscription.

Interest Universal.

When people are turning first to the contest page and noting the gains the candidates are making. The public is wise enough to make allowance for the reserves that some are laying up against a time of need.

An Important Question Answered.

We were surprised to hear that some are under the impression that more than one prize can be won by a single candidate. It seems to us that this would be most discouraging to others who are making their best effort and who, if they miss a grand prize, are at least entitled to the district prize. We tried to make clear in our firm announcement that the three candidates who secured the highest number of votes, irrespective of districts, would win the three grand prizes. It is possible, though not at all probable, that one district will win two of these grand prizes, but one candidate will get only one prize. That does not affect the division of the district prizes at all. After the grand prizes have been awarded the winners of them have all they are entitled to. Then the candidates in each district who stand highest in their district will get the district prizes.

All of you have heard "Make Good." Now see what it has to do especially with the contest business. All who take this to heart are preparing a good time for themselves and will have cause to rejoice on the last day of the contest.

CHOIR MEMBERS AS HOSTS.

Those of St. Alphonsus's Church Will Entertain at Music Hall.

One of the musical organizations of the city that has a record for successes in the social line is the choir of St. Alphonsus's church, which will give its annual May party and entertainment at Music hall on Tuesday evening next. With a long line of achievements to their credit the members of the choir have set out this year to give their friends the best time they have ever given. Dancing will be preceded by an entertainment which will be provided by the members of the choir. A dainty luncheon will be served in the dining hall off the balcony. Stevens's orchestra will furnish the music for the dancing and that means that this portion of the entertainment will be the best. Something of an innovation will be tried in the dance order. There will be no printed programmes, the several numbers being shown from the stage. It is expected that the new idea will prove most popular. The dance programme will include 18 numbers for which the music will be as follows, although this order is not the one in which the dances will be called on Tuesday evening: Two-Step—Put Me Amongst the Girls. Waltz—Marselle. Lancers—The Jolly Junker. Two-Step—College Yell. Buffalo Glide—Dance of the Bobolinks. Waltz—The Soul Kiss. Three-Step—Nach, Mitternacht. Horn Dance—Hi Henry's Barn Dance. Waltz—Waving Palms. Two-Step—Down in Huntington. Waltz—The Merry Wild. Horn Dance—Cuddle Up a Little Closer. Two-Step—The Big Stick. Lancers—The Merry Wild. Horn Dance—Cuddle Up a Little Closer. Waltz—The Gay Musician. Buffalo Glide—Mirror Dance. Two-Step—Dixie Dan. Waltz—Dixie Hours.
