THE CHOLERA scare is about over for this year.

SENATOR Fassett is going to speak in Michigan. He will not take the night's hide away with him as an exhibit.

IT is announced that in the last engagement with the French, the King of Dahomey lost his best warriors. The best warriors of the King of Dahomey are women. It must test the gallantry of the French to the utmost to fight with women.

SECRETARY Rusk officially declares that pleuro pneumonia has disappeared from among the cattle of the United States. If this announcement is accepted on the other side of the Atlantic, it means many hundred thousands of dollars profit to American farmers.

OUT IN Indiana, a prize fighter who found himself "out-classed" jumped over the ropes and ran away, followed by jeers, the crowd and any number of sticks and stones. It is a pity that more of them do not do the same thing. If pugilists were cowards, there would be no pugilism.

A CURIOUS state of affairs exists in Vermont, if reports are to be credited. The nominees of both the Republican and Democratic parties for Governor are directors in National banks. The Vermont constitution prohibits Federal officials from holding State office. It has been decided that directors in National banks are Federal officials. Therefore it may be decided that the prohibition candidate, who received less than 150 votes, was the only one constitutionally voted for.

TWO NOTABLE MEN DEAD

Two men, each eminent in their several departments of business endeavor, have passed away since last the BULLETIN went to press.

James W. Husted was easily our best parliamentarian. Patrick Sarsfield Gilmore stood at the head of the band-masters.

Gen. Husted was more than a parliamentarian. He was a politician of fertile resources, as his famous fish-horn and dinner-bell campaign in Rockland county demonstrated, perhaps more effectively than any other endeavor of his life. He was a business man of rare sagacity as shown by the trust imposed in him by the heavy capitalists with whom he was associated.

Mr. Gilmore was more than a band-master. He was the leader, it is true, of the best drilled band of military musicians in this country, the equal of any to be found even under the wings of the subsidizing monarchs of the old world; but he was also an orchestral leader and it has recently been estimated that his collection of scores is worth $50,000. Both men will be missed in their respective spheres.

HILL AT BUFFALO.

Senator Hill spoke at Buffalo Saturday night. Those who have read his Brooklyn speech and who read that delivered at Buffalo will notice that he is gradually warming to his work. At Brooklyn he delivered a speech in behalf of the Democratic party. In Buffalo he spoke for Cleveland and Stevenson. The Brooklyn speech may be characterized as the ablest effort; that at Buffalo as the one best calculated to arouse enthusiasm in his party and to rally his own followers to the support of the ticket nominated by his party at Chicago.

Forty Hours at St. Alphonsus' Church.

The forty hours devotion opened in St. Alphonsus' German Catholic church with high mass at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Rev. Father Nezel pastor of the church officiating. The mass was followed by the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The interior of the church has been thoroughly renovated and remodeled, the altars beautifully painted and gilded. The altars were banked high with flowers, gladiolas, geraniums, palms and ferns. Over the tabernacle and entwining the crucifix was similar and coral begonias, artistically arranged. Countless wax tapers lent additional beauty to the scene. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Dennis V. Harrington sang Weber's mass in a finished manner. The services continued to-day and masses will be read tomorrow and Wednesday morning and services will be held this evening and tomorrow evening. The devotions will close with the 8 o'clock mass, Wednesday morning.

Burial Attractions.

Vernona Jarbeau and her clever company of comedians will entertain at the Burial to-night. The musical farce comedy which is made to fit Jarbeau and her associates is still called Starlight, although it has been reconstructed and is fresher and better. Of course Jarbeau is still the central figure in the songs and dances.

The Fire Patrol will be presented at the Burial Wednesday night. The Brooklyn Citizen says: "It is brimful of realism, but withal is so well put together that its sensational features are not obtruded to the exclusion of probability. A really good company appeared in the cast, a real fire patrol was drawn by spirit-d horses being one of the features, as was a ponderous gold stamping mill in full operation."

WITH A PISTOL.

John B. Paity, of Westworth Street, Takes His Own Life.

The usually quiet neighborhood in the vicinity of Westworth street was startled yesterday afternoon with the news that John B. Paity, of No. 9, an old resident and respected citizen, had committed suicide by shooting himself at his residence at 4 o'clock. No cause can be assigned for the suicide other than that for some time past Mr. Paity has been acting strangely, though always quiet and making no trouble for his family. For years past, until a few months ago, he has been employed at Westworth's scythe factory. He has since been working at the carpenter's trade. It is thought his change in business preyed upon his mind though he said but little about it. Yesterday morning he was unusually restless but, a few hours before the shooting, he became quiet again. Mrs. Paity and her little son were alone in the house at the time of the shooting. A few minutes before it occurred, Mr. Paity said good bye to his wife, as he entered the sitting room. She was in the kitchen at the time and supposed he was going to lie down. The next thing she heard was a shot and started for the bedroom of the sitting room from whence the report came and found her husband across the bed, lying. He had shot himself through the heart with a .38 calibre self chamber revolver which was the property of his son. Coroner Tripp was notified and arrived shortly after the shooting. He did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest. The case is a peculiarly sad one as the suicide was always a hardworking, industrious man and had the respect of all who knew him. He leaves a wife and three children, the oldest is about 17 years of age, besides an aged mother and three sisters. The family will have the sympathy of the entire community in their affliction. No arrangements have been made as yet regarding the funeral.

Resolutions of Sympathy.

At a meeting of Council No. 1, G. R. B. A. at their rooms yesterday afternoon, the following resolutions on the death of the late Thomas Whelan were adopted:

WHEREAS, Death has snatched from our midst a member beloved by all, be it Resolved, That we the officers and members of Council No. 1, G. R. B. A. do hereby express the loss of our brother and praying God to take him to the prime of life at all times we adhere to the will of Almighty God. Resolved, That we extend our sincere sympathy to his widow and son in their bereavement and that as a testimonial of respect our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days after the date of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, printed in the daily papers and entered on the minutes of our meeting.

Mrs. Margaret Connelly, AFRS S. WALL, J. H. ROGERS, Committee.

The Holy Name society of the Holy Family church has adopted the following resolutions on the death of Mrs. Maggie C. Tobin.

WHEREAS, The Holy Name Society has learned with deep regret of the death of Mrs. Tobin, an estimable and esteemed young lady, daughter of our beloved brother, therefore be it Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of the Holy Name Society be extended to the family of our brother, Bartholomew Connelly, in this their hour of affliction. Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

WILLIAM PRYANT, JAMES O'BRIEN, CHARLES GIBBY, Committee.

Funeral of the Late Samuel Rice

The funeral of the late Samuel Rice, Jr., took place from the family residence, No. 6 Underwood street, yesterday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock and was largely attended. A delegation from the Seward post G. A. R. of which the deceased was a member was in attendance. Rev. W. H. Hubbard, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the funeral services at the house and read the committal service at the grave. The G. A. R. men marched to Fort Hill cemetery where the interment was made. The bearers were chosen from the members of the G. A. R. The floral tributes were beautiful and profuse and consisted of "Gates Ajar" from the employees of the BULLETIN office; crosses and anchor from Mr. and Mrs. John Fry and Mr. and Mrs. Armitage; baskets of flowers from Wallace Gates and Minnie Eggleston; large bouquet from George F. Willis; a floral hat and cut flowers from relatives and friends of the family.

Lock Out

For counterfeits, imitations, and substitutes, represented as genuine, but sold at less than regular prices by dealers in medicines not authorized to sell Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines.

To guard against fraud and imposition, the makers of Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines now sell their world famous remedies, only through druggists, authorized as agents, and under a positive guarantee of benefit or cure, or money refunded. Authorized agents only can, under these regulations, furnish Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines, which always have been, are, and always will be, sold at the following prices: Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (the remedy for all diseases arising from a torpid liver or impure blood), $1.00 per bottle. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription (the remedy for woman's chronic weakness and derangements), $1.00 per bottle. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets (the original and best Little Liver Pills), 25 cents per vial. The genuine guaranteed medicines can be sold only at these prices. But they're the cheapest medicines sold, because you pay only for the good you get. The money is refunded if they don't benefit or cure. On these terms, will it pay you to take any risk?

Railroad Negotiations on a Jamb.

A party of prominent New York Central railroad officials and newspaper men who have been enjoying a trip over the New York Central road from New York city to Buffalo arrived in the city Saturday evening on the 11:33 train and remained over yesterday making a tour of the lake yesterday afternoon with a number of Auburnians. The party included George E. Daniels, general passenger agent; M. B. Rosch, general Eastern agent; J. F. Fairbank, auditor passenger accounts; Edson J. Weeks, general auditor of the passenger department; Theodore Hutterfeld, general passenger agent of the R. W. & O.; W. B. Folger, superintendent of the St. Lawrence Steam Boat company, and a number of New York news' paper men.

Outter Under Bonds.

Farmenio W. Outter, on examination Saturday was required to give an undertaking in the sum of $1,000 with two sureties to keep the peace. He gave bail for his appearance for trial on the 25th.

A young man was attacked by a number of toughs in State street last night and he drew a revolver and forced them to retreat. He was arrested for carrying concealed weapons and demands a trial.

This Morning's Fire.

Shortly before 3 a. m., Mrs. Lizzie Prince, who with her son occupied the lower portion of the house No. 26 1/2 Steel street, discovered that the house was on fire. She aroused the neighbors and an alarm was sent in from box 20, corner of Logan and Mary streets. The fire was in the upper portion of the house into which John P. Thompson, the owner of the premises, had moved his furniture last week. He had not taken up his residence there, however, and it is not known how the fire started. The neighbors and firemen removed most of Mrs. Prince's furniture, undamaged, but all of Thompson's goods were destroyed and the upper portion of the house was damaged. The loss is estimated at between $700 and $800. The firemen responded promptly and extinguished the flames.

Fatal Result of the Storm.

Last night's storm was very serious on Lake Ontario and fears are entertained for the safety of many vessels.

William Grant's fishing smack is said to have been wrecked in last night's storm near Fair Haven and a man named Frank Wilson, who was employed on the smack as an assistant, was drowned. The boat left North Fair Haven at midnight Saturday but drifted around the lake until yesterday afternoon, as there was no wind for sailing. When the storm came up last evening the little craft became unmanageable and was driven ashore. Wilson was washed from the boat and drowned.

The Wind Spoiled the Banner.

The fall in temperature which made today so unpleasant followed the wind and rain storm which prevailed nearly all night. From 10 p. m. the wind blew and rain fell for several hours. The wind did some damage about town to fruit trees. The banner of the Young Men's Democracy, which hung in Genesee street, was blown into shreds, and like Humpty Dumpty, all the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't piece the shattered fragments into any semblance of the original.

Funeral of James C. Dorby.

The remains of James Cephas Dorby, who died in Brooklyn Thursday, arrived in this city on the 6:50 a. m. train from the east to day and were taken to Tallman's undertaking rooms, and afterwards were conveyed to Fort Hill, where they were laid at rest. Seward, James Seymour, Jr., James R. Cox, A. C. Miller, E. Snow and Major Carpenter.

TENDING TO BUSINESS.

Comptroller Campbell Proving Himself a Careful State Official.

ALBANY, Sept. 26.—Comptroller Campbell is liable to add to the receipts of the State about a clean half million dollars this year and thereby secure proportionate reduction in taxation. In his annual report to the Legislature last year he called the attention of that body to what he believed was a fact, that there was a large amount of money bequeathed in the State that failed to pay the collateral inheritance tax. The State of things was due to the carelessness of surrogates and he asked for an appropriation that a thorough examination could be made, under direction of the comptroller, of the records and proceedings of the several surrogate courts since the original law was enacted, for the purpose of making discovery of property and estates that are liable to pay these taxes and had thus far escaped taxation. The appropriation was granted and the comptroller has had and still has experts in the different counties looking up the records. The work will be finished by the time the Legislature meets and with the aid of the attorney general the money due will be collected. The following sums have been collected from these taxes in the several years since the statute was enacted in 1857, viz: 1856, $84,123.92; 1857, $561,716.23; 1858, $730,000.31; 1859, $1,075,692.25; 1860, $1,117,637.70; 1861, $890,267. This year it is believed that with the back money obtained under the comptroller's plan, the sum total will be nearly $1,500,000. In this connection it is curious to note the disparagement in the amounts paid in by counties last year. New York county paid more than half of the total sum of $563,000. Delaware county only paid $18,126, while Erie paid $16,826 and Kings $35,734. The increase in several of these counties will be large under Mr. Campbell's vigorous means.

Cook was thrown out of the vehicle with the gun still in his hand. When he struck the ground the second barrel went off, and the charge went through his body, killing him almost instantly.
