

Handkerchiefs.

AFTER THE BATTLE THE ROLL CALL.

Handkerchief selling here on Saturday night, all day Monday and all day Tuesday was sensational. The unprecedented value given will not be readily forgotten. The last opportunity on this lot Saturday morning.

- 25 dozen Ladies' Hemstitch Handkerchiefs, 3c.
- 25 dozen Ladies' Pure Linen Initials, 10c.
- 10 dozen Ladies' Mourning Bands, pure linen, 5c.
- 20 dozen Ladies' Pure Linen Hemstitch, all hems, 12 1/2c.
- 10 dozen Ladies' Pure Linen Embroidered, 12 1/2c.
- 15 dozen Ladies' Pure Linen Hemstitch, 6 1/2c.
- 15 dozen Ladies' Pure Linen Hemstitch, Embroidered, Scalloped and Lace Edge, 17c each.
- 12 dozen Ladies' Pure Linen, Embroidered, Scalloped and Hemstitch, 25c.
- 30 dozen Gents' Colored Border, Hemstitch, 5c, were 12 1/2c.
- 20 dozen Gents' Initials, pure linen, hemstitch, 12 1/2c.
- 10 dozen Gents' Pure Linen Hemstitch, 10c.
- 15 dozen Gents' Pure Linen White Fancies, 12 1/2c, were 19c.

Silk Handkerchiefs.

50 dozen Gents' Colored Borders, plain white and initials, worth 35c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and 1.25. All at 25c.

Gloves.

- 1 lot Men's Gloves, including Scotch Wool, Astrachan, Kid fleece-lined, etc., all at one price, 25c.
- 1 lot Ladies', Misses' and Children's Cashmere and Wool Mittens. Good 25c quality. To close at 15c.

Money Saving Opportunities

FOR SATURDAY.

Shoes.

Have you a boy? Then you'll be interested this morning. 279 pairs Boys' and Youths' heavy double sole, hand welt Tan Shoes, genuine English Oil Calf, thoroughly waterproof. The best wearing shoe that can be made. Regularly sold at $5.00 and $4.00. Special price $2.49. These were made for a large Philadelphia house, who refused acceptance on account of late delivery. Our buyer happened to be in the factory the day they were returned, made an offer for them, and they are here to day. Many bargain lines throughout the department.

Toilet Goods.

Manufacturers' samples of Hair Brushes, Tooth Brushes, Shaving Brushes, Nail Brushes, all at one price, 10c. 1,000 Tooth Brushes, regularly sold at 10c. Special price, 5c. 175 Hair-Brushes, Clothes Brushes, Hat Brushes, etc. An exceptionally cheap lot at 25c.

Leather Goods.

200 Music rolls at less than half price, 19c. 75 Music Rolls, regularly 75c and $1.00, to be closed at 39c.

Ribbons.

SPECIAL SALE OF BLACK RIBBONS.

It rarely happens that staple Black Ribbons can be had at such prices. Black double-face Satin Ribbon (all silk). 3 1/2 and 4 inches wide, also Black Tafteta Ribbon, top edge, extra fine quality, 3 1/2 and 4 inch, also Black Moire Taffeta Ribbon, 4 1/2 inch. These three great lines all at 25c per yard.

Jackets.

Just opened. Fine heavy Tan Coats, double breast, high storm collar (velvet). Special price, $2.90.

Boys' Clothing.

- Boys' Ulster Collar Reefers, the balance to close at $1.99 and $2.99.
- Boys' All Wool School Suits, double seat, double knee, double breast, broken sizes, $1.99 and 2.22.
- Hats and Caps. All the winter goods, to clear up at 11c, 22c, 24c.
- Boys' Sweaters, blue and black, special drive at 66c.

Jewelry.

(Main Floor, Center Aisle.)

Manufacturers' samples at less than half price.

- 400 Fancy Hat Pins, regularly 25c, special price, 10c.
- 1,000 Stick Pins, immense variety, regularly 10c to 25c Saturday price, 5c.
- 300 silver plated, gold plated, jeweled and fancy enameled shirt waist sets, worth 25c to 50c. Saturday price 10c.
- 200 Sterling Silver Shirt Waist sets, wonderful value, 25c a set.
- 800 pieces Sterling Silver Novelties, including Nail Files, Button Hooks, Erasers, Shoe Lifts, Seals, Cuticle Knives, Tweezers, etc. Made to sell at 50c. Your choice at 25c.

At same time we will show a fine collection of new beautifully dainty girdles, Manicure Goods, Vinaigrettes, Waist Sets and other novelties.

DEY BROTHERS & COMPANY.

CENTRAL AND NORTHERN NEW YORK.

BALDWINVILLE.

The recent enumeration of the village shows the population by wards to be as follows: First, 1,144; Second, 1,042; Third, 871; total, 3,057.

The following officers were installed at a meeting of the Baldwinville Council, Order of United Friends, held Thursday evening: Chief, councillor, Willard H. Tappan; vice-councillor, Mrs. E. M. W. George; recorder and treasurer, Frank A. Gardner; treasurer, W. H. Trowbridge; prolate, Jesse B. Palmer; marshal, J. W. Pettler; guardian, William King; sentinel, John Wagner; past chief, John P. McCarthy; Jesse B. Palmer and J. W. Pettler.

Aaron P. Clark has purchased the house and lot in Canton street formerly owned by Thomas and William Omond; consideration, $425.

W. A. Bronson has been appointed fireman in the place of Walter Elias, resigned.

The case of Willard Hudson against C. F. Beck, the former owner of the milk station, will be heard before Justice Greenfield next Tuesday.

The funeral services of Edwin O. Kelly, who died at his home in Seneca street last Monday evening, were attended at the Baptist church Thursday afternoon. Rev. H. P. Klyver, pastor of the church, officiated.

CORTLAND.

The jury in the case of the Second National Bank against A. L. Fry, brought in a verdict Thursday evening in favor of the defendant.

Rev. J. O. Corlies left yesterday for Moravia where he will remain until Monday.

Chief of Police Linderman returned to Cortland yesterday morning with George O. Squires, whose arrest was noted in yesterday's Standard. His case came up before Police Justice Nelson in the afternoon, the defendant putting in a claim of an unbalanced account.

The loyal circle of King's daughters held a very interesting meeting with Mrs. W. J. McKinney, No. 5 Church street, yesterday afternoon.

The Republican town convention will be held in Freeman's hall this afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Daniel Delaney, who has for three years conducted a grocery at the corner of Elm and Pomeroy streets, has decided to remove to Chicago and engage in the same business.

The firm of McGraw & Sons, doing business at No. 23 Main street, is about to go out of business. The ill health of M. E. McGraw, the senior partner, being the cause of this decision.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Newton expect to leave to-day for Florida to remain several weeks.

Commencement exercises at the normal school may be said to have begun last evening when the Alpha Epsilon society held its first annual picnic exercise.

ONEIDA.

It is said that the Lee realising their company of coming to Oneida, to locate Charles A. Lee, the proprietor, has been here negotiating for the purchase of the Chemstock property in the western part of the village. Mr. Comstock and Mr. Lee met here yesterday afternoon, but it is not known whether the deal went through or not. This large concern would probably employ anywhere from 10 to 150 men the year round. If the Comstock plant is purchased, Mr. Lee will remove the works to Oneida at once.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Perry have returned from an extended business trip to New York.

Miss Agnes Nelligan is entertaining Miss Alice Morse of Gouvernville.

The funeral of the late Jonas White occurred yesterday. Mr. White was one of the most prominent Masons in Madison county. He was also a member of Glen Roy lodge, I. O. O. F., Hamilton lodge, F. and A. M., and was for years a deacon of the Congregational church in Eaton.

There seems to be quite a good deal of fishing through Oneida lake this winter. It is said that one man from here has over 400 trout and is taking all kinds of fish to Rome.

The board of managers of the Odd-fellow's home fully met with Mrs. R. M. Baker in Lenoax avenue Tuesday afternoon. Business of importance will be transacted.

Clarence H. Carr was given a farewell reception in the Opera house's Christian church room Tuesday evening. The body present had a very enjoyable time.

GROTON.

Joseph Best left yesterday afternoon on a business trip to New York.

H. W. Baker of the Syracuse Standard was in town yesterday on business. Arthur Almy has come to Albany on business.

Francis Curtis of Cincinnati made a business trip to Cortland yesterday.

F. E. Brady, who was called to St. Joseph, Pa., to attend the funeral of his cousin, Richard Sullivan, has returned.

A lecture on "The Uses of Quinine," by John W. Miller, orator, philosopher, scholar and wit, will be given at the opera house next Wednesday evening. This is the fourth number in the normal lecture course of entertainments.

A warrant has been issued by Justice T. H. Dowd for the arrest on a charge of petit larceny, of Lewis Hood. The warrant is in the hands of Constable Fred Bowker, who expected to make the arrest last night, and charges Hood with stealing one and a half cords of wood from Mr. Griswold's land and selling it in Homer.

Stump P. P. Mooney reports that it is doubtful if the ice carnival will be held tonight because he does not expect that the ice can be got in proper condition.

ONEIDA.

It is said that the Lee realising their company of coming to Oneida, to locate Charles A. Lee, the proprietor, has been here negotiating for the purchase of the Chemstock property in the western part of the village. Mr. Comstock and Mr. Lee met here yesterday afternoon, but it is not known whether the deal went through or not. This large concern would probably employ anywhere from 10 to 150 men the year round. If the Comstock plant is purchased, Mr. Lee will remove the works to Oneida at once.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Perry have returned from an extended business trip to New York.

Miss Agnes Nelligan is entertaining Miss Alice Morse of Gouvernville.

The funeral of the late Jonas White occurred yesterday. Mr. White was one of the most prominent Masons in Madison county. He was also a member of Glen Roy lodge, I. O. O. F., Hamilton lodge, F. and A. M., and was for years a deacon of the Congregational church in Eaton.

There seems to be quite a good deal of fishing through Oneida lake this winter. It is said that one man from here has over 400 trout and is taking all kinds of fish to Rome.

The board of managers of the Odd-fellow's home fully met with Mrs. R. M. Baker in Lenoax avenue Tuesday afternoon. Business of importance will be transacted.

Clarence H. Carr was given a farewell reception in the Opera house's Christian church room Tuesday evening. The body present had a very enjoyable time.

and Mrs. H. J. Knapp, Mrs. P. S. Carr, Mrs. Mary Mathews and Miss Sarah Chapman attended the banquet of the Baptist social union in Syracuse last week.

The antioscope entertainment will be repeated in Assembly hall with a new programme February 17.

Regents' examinations were held at the high school this week.

DERUYTER.

Mrs. Byron Maxson of Homer is visiting Mrs. M. E. Talbot.

Miss Grace Nicholas, after an extended visit with relatives at Dunkirk, returned to her home on Wednesday.

Miss Bertha Seaman of Cortland is spending a few weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Seaman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gavill of Lynn, Mass., are visiting at W. G. Weed's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lee attended the funeral of Grant Gardner's little son at Tully Sunday.

Miss Rena Lee and Miss Ethel Potter are spending a few days in Keeney's settlement.

A. P. T. Beniteau of Detroit, left for Chicago Sunday, after a week's visit with his wife and daughter at Miss E. J. Vincent's.

SOLVAY.

Miss Hattie Stokes visited relatives in town during the week.

Mrs. Henry Mitchell of Carolina avenue, is confined to her home by illness.

Miss Nellie Hines of Baldwinville, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Marhinney in Caroline avenue.

Mrs. Clara Wilson has been spending a few days at her former home in East Syracuse.

Miss Amelia Meyers was the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. W. Edgerton of Hay avenue on Monday last.

Mrs. N. P. Stanton of Amboy, Oswego county, formerly of this place, is visiting her relatives in Milton avenue.

T. E. Roberts left Tuesday for Whitesboro, where he will be employed as a machinist by the New York mills knitting company.

Sollie Putziger has completed the census enumeration of the village of Solvay. The books show a total population of 2,919. An increase of 187 is shown since the last census taken in May, 1896.

The McCarthy Bros., prominent contractors of this village, will remove to Yonkers where they will engage in the contracting business.

The S. A. department of the Solvay works have arranged for a sleigh ride party and dance at the Globe hotel, Liverpool, on Friday night, February 11. The committee in charge are James Whelan, William Purcell, William Romof, Timothy Stapleton, Robert Dalton, Michael Kane, Patrick Fullerton, Michael Miller, Daniel O'Brien and Michael Slack.

ONONDAGA HILL.

A special meeting of Onondaga Hill grange has been called by the secretary for Monday evening. The particular business in hand is to prepare for attending the State grange meeting on Wednesday afternoon in a body at the "Immaculate" occupation.

The school children have all received their badges commemorating the centennial.

of the town of Onondaga and bearing the portrait of old Onondaga. It has given them much pleasure.

No loc has yet been harvested in this region. It is now four inches thick.

CICERO.

Lauren Plant died yesterday morning at about 10 o'clock at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. S. Bobford, aged nearly 81 years. Mr. Plant was born in Rutland county, Vermont, March 7, 1817, and moved to Cicero in the spring of 1857. He married Mrs. Sarah R. Smiley in 1857. She died in 1877. Mr. Plant was a Republican and had been town clerk, collector and constable of Cicero for 20 years. He was deputy sheriff under Sheriffs Meldrum and Evans.

Mr. Plant is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J. S. Bobford, and one son, Byron Plant, the present town clerk of Cicero. The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at the Universalist church at 2 o'clock.

ONONDAGA VALLEY.

At the M. E. parsonage on January 20, by Rev. R. C. Fox, occurred the marriage of Edwin C. Gwilt and Miss Kittie G. Fermer, both of South Onondaga.

Miss Adella Tucker of Otisco is visiting Mrs. R. J. Turcotte in Midland avenue.

John Samuel Taylor is convalescent.

John H. Caron's condition is not improved, and it is feared that his recent hemorrhages, greatly endangered his chances for recovery.

A. L. Bonney, who lived in the Markham house on the Academy green, has moved to Glen avenue.

AUBURN.

Benjamin Webster, one of Auburn's prominent citizens, who was unfortunately afflicted with epileptic fits, followed by periods of violent insanity, died at the Willard state asylum at Ovid early yesterday morning, when he was taken Wednesday afternoon.

Last Saturday Mr. Webster suffered a serious attack of epilepsy, which was accompanied by a violent attack of insanity. His mania was unabated and, owing to his acts of violence to his wife and attendants, it was necessary to bind his arms and feet and place him in the apartments of lunacy at the city hall. There was no hope held out for his recovery, and death has early ended his days of suffering.

Mr. Webster was 51 years of age and was a veteran of the civil war. He was at one time prominent in local politics, and served his ward in the boards of aldermen and supervisors.

When the Second separate company of the National guard was organized in this city in 1881, Mr. Webster was one of the charter members. He was also a member of Seaward post, G. A. R., and of St. Paul's lodge, F. and A. M. For many years he was engaged in the trading business in this city.

Walter E. Woodruff, clerk of the surrogate's court, and William A. Elder, a student in the law school of Underwood, passed a general examination yesterday in the law department of law.

The school children have all received their badges commemorating the centennial.

har. They will take the oath next Tuesday before the appellate division of the supreme court.

The midyear examinations at the high school and the other public schools of the city were concluded yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Ann Thorne, widow of the late Simon Thorne of Poughkeepsie, passed away at the home of her brother, Samuel Titus, at No. 21 South street, yesterday morning. The funeral services will be held at the residence of her brother to-morrow and the remains will be taken to Poughkeepsie for burial.

Twenty-one applicants for positions in state institutions will be examined at the high school to-day by Examiners Strong and Treat.

Mrs. Mandania P. Simpson died yesterday noon after a lingering illness. She was born in the town of Onondaga and is survived by three children, Sarah P. of this city, James K. of Chicago and Alpheus W. of this city.

Charles Glazier, a brakeman, who lives in Lyons, met with a serious mishap Thursday night in the Central yards. He fell from the top of a coal car upon the iron edge of a forward car, cutting a deep wound and fracturing a bone. Drs. Voorhees and Laird were summoned and dressed the injury. He returned to his home in Lyons on the Lyons special.

CIGARVILLE.

The following officers of East Clay grange No. 428, have been installed for the year: Master, W. V. Young; overseer, D. A. Young; lecturer, Mrs. A. Gilmour; steward, J. Beagle; assistant stewards, I. Shell, Mrs. D. A. Young; chaplain, Mrs. J. Beagle; treasurer, M. D. Young; secretary, A. Gilmour; Cigarville; gatekeeper, M. Beagle; Pomona.

Mrs. J. Shell, Flora, Mrs. M. Beagle, Cora, Mrs. I. Shell. It is intended that the entire membership of 22 shall attend the State Grange on Wednesday.

Catarth and Colds Relieved in 10 to 60 Minutes.

One short puff of the breath through the blower, supplied with each bottle of Dr. Agnew's Catarth Powder, diffuses this powder over the surface of the nasal passages. Patients are delighted to use it. It relieves instantly and permanently cures Catarth, Hay Fever, Colds, Headache, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis and Deafness. 50 cents—75c. Sold by Brown & Dawson, Newton & Hiccock and Solman & Hubbard.

In Surrogate's Court.

In surrogate's court yesterday decree was issued in the matter of the disposition of the real estate of Heinrich Peters; the will of Owen Keenan was proved and letters issued to John H. Keenan; letters were issued to Earl E. Ellis in the matter of the administration of the estate of Cora, Mrs. I. Shell. It is intended that the will of George V. Robby; and the will of Genevieve Will be proved and letters with will annexed issued to Lee J. Hofmann.

Goods advertised in this newspaper are for sale in this town. You can get them without trouble if you refuse substitutes and press your demand for genuine articles.

WE have one of the most complete shops, the most experienced mechanics who learned their trade and worked many years at the Pope Mfg. Co. making Columbia wheels. We can make wheels and repair any and all kinds, vulcanize tires—making many tires perfect, pronounced by others worthless. Nickel plating, enameling, etc.

Now Is the Time to Have Your Wheel Looked Over and Put in Order for Spring.

Drop us a card or telephone us and we will send for it, put it in order and keep it until you are ready, and for less money than we could later. Try us—our work will please you.

Butler & Johnson, 229-231 EAST GENESEE ST.

PATENTS FRANK T. KENT, Solicitor of Patents, secures a market for patents when obtained. Office Nos. 67 and 68 Syracuse, N. Y. Everson Building.

PATENTS SMITH & BENNON We have removed to 411, etc. 6th floor, New Goodness County Savings Bank Building. Solicitors of U. S. and Foreign Patents. Thirty Years' experience. Inventor's Guide free. OFFICES: 69 F Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

BARTHOLDI LIGHTS For Sale by W. S. ORR, 337 E. Genesee St. Best Lamp in the Market. Complete $1.00. Shades 30c and 35c.

Just the Thing to Do! ATTEND Meads' Business Training School. Open DAY AND EVENING. Send for circular or call at rooms City Bank Block, Syracuse, N. Y.

O'Donnell Bros. MODERN PLUMBING. 313 Warren St.