THE MINISTER'S STORY.

Rev. Dr. Britt of Omaha, who officiates as editor of The Veteran, dearly loves a good story and can tell one as well as listen to one.

CHILDREN AND SLANG.

Slang is objectionable, says the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, but if it ever falls from the lips of children there is an air of added quaintness that makes it all but excusable.

THE MINISTER'S STORY (continued).

On the coldest night in the winter of '78 Dr. Britt retired to bed in a well warmed bedchamber and prepared to sleep the sleep of the just.

THE MINISTER'S STORY (continued).

Dr. Britt had been married just long enough to appreciate the situation, and finally consented to go.

THE MINISTER'S STORY (continued).

The next morning, the bride and groom started for South America and rode to the railroad station in a lumber wagon with Dr. Britt. The doctor went to the station with them, and just before the train departed the groom called him to one side and thrust a sealed envelope into his hand.

THE MINISTER'S STORY (continued).

Dr. Britt thrust the envelope into his pocket and hastened home. Calling Mrs. Britt into his study, he opened the envelope to gaze upon his fate.

THE MINISTER'S STORY (continued).

The envelope contained a $1 bill and a 50 cent shipslipper.—Omaha World-Herald.

A telegraph line recently run to Coomassie from the coast is highly appreciated by the Ashanti natives. They cut at the wire in suitable lengths to make whistles.
